

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 272.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1900.

TWO CENTS

TWO MEN WERE BADLY USED UP

In Street Fights Near the Bridge
Approach Late Saturday Night.

STRUCK WITH COUPLING PIN

One Man Was Kicked and Beaten
While His Girl Screamed
For Help.

ANOTHER MAN KNOCKED DOWN.

Fights were numerous Saturday night in the vicinity of the bridge and two people were badly used up.

Tollkeeper Owen was busy at the bridge between 9 and 10 o'clock when he noticed a fellow and a girl coming up the railroad track. When they reached a spot almost directly under the bridge two men appeared and one of them hit the girl's escort with a coupling pin. He went down and then they kicked him. The girl began to scream and then Owen endeavored to telephone to the fire station for the patrol, but his telephone had not been connected and he could get no farther than central. The assailants went up the track on the run and the girl managed to assist her escort to his feet and help him to a physician, where several stitches were taken in a cut on the back of his head. He was badly used up. His name is not known, although he worked for McLaughlin & Timmons and is known to his companions as "Shorty." The cause of the trouble is a mystery.

This was not the only fight Saturday night. A bricklayer employed on the Southside pottery started for his home on the Southside about 11 o'clock. He was going down College street to the bridge and had reached a point between Robinson and Cook street when he was assaulted by two men. He was knocked down and thrown out in the street and kicked after he was down. When he arrived at the bridge he presented a pitiable appearance. His face was badly bruised and cut and blood was running down his coat.

BOY HAD MONEY.

Tollkeeper Todd Refused to Change a
$20 Bill and the Boy Presented
One for $10.

Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock a boy, apparently 12 years of age, requested Tollkeeper Todd to change a $20 bill. Mr. Todd suspected that all was not right, and refused to make the change, and also refused a $10 bill which the boy afterward presented. He afterward came up with $1 and was allowed to pass over the bridge. In about an hour he came back and was soon followed by three men, who found him in company with three other boys and all were admiring a new revolver which the boy displayed. The men searched the boy's pockets and found two revolvers, a watch and about $17 in money. He did not appear in the least abashed while being searched.

The men kept the stuff and took the boy away with them. It is said the boy took $84 from his father.

May Make an Example.

Of late frequent complaints have been made to Mayor Davidson and Marshal Thompson of boys playing ball on the streets, often to the destruction of windows and other breakable property. They find these cases very difficult to deal with on account of their great number. Today a case is being investigated where a number of windows in the Central school building were broken by boys playing in the alley nearby. Mayor Davidson may decide to make an example of the culprits.

SPECIAL SERMONS.

DR. CRAWFORD ADDRESSES
COOPERS' UNION.

And Rev. J. W. Gorrell Preaches the Anniversary Sermon to the Odd Fellows.

Dr. Clark Crawford, at the First M. E. church last evening preached an interesting sermon to the members of the Coopers' union, local No. 71, who attended the service in a body. Dr. Crawford preached from Matthew 6: 11, "Give us this day our daily bread." In part he said: "These words contain the spirit with which all men should approach God. They exclude unnecessary anxiety, in accordance with many other passages of scripture which make the spirit of worry unchristian."

In conclusion Dr. Crawford urged upon his congregation the importance of studying the scriptures.

Rev. J. W. Gorrell, of the Christian church, yesterday afternoon preached the annual sermon to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and other branches of the order, Patriarchs Militant and Rebekahs, at the Methodist Protestant church. About 150 members were present. Rev. Gorrell spoke mainly upon the motto of the order, namely "Faith, Hope and Charity."

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Nominating Committee of First M. E.
Church to Meet This Evening.

The nominating committee of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church will meet this evening at the residence of Dr. Clark Crawford for the purpose of nominating new officers. The cabinets of the league will meet in the lecture room of the church Tuesday evening and on Thursday evening the election of officers will be held.

GRAND JURY AT WORK.

Light Business This Session and Will Likely be Completed
Wednesday.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special)—Court convened this morning at 10 o'clock, and the grand jury at once got down to work, Charles McGregor, of Wells-ville, being appointed foreman. The work before the grand jury this term is light, and they expect to complete it by Wednesday.

Dog Hung Himself.

A dog owned by William Deacon, of Eighth street, hung himself yesterday. The dog was tied to a post in the rear of the lot near he fence. He jumped the fence, but the chain was too short to allow him to touch the ground and he was strangled.

Only One Arrest.

The only case in police court this morning was that of Jack Sharp, who was arrested by Officer Davidson yesterday. He was drunk and disorderly. The patrol wagon was not called out, something very unusual after a big

THE DESECRATION HAS BEEN STOPPED

Engineer George Found Sand Men Had Encroached All Along the Line

FOR FROM 14 TO 35 FEET

Mayor Davidson's Orders That Hauling Shall Be Stopped
At Once Are Obeyed.

THE CITY ORDINANCE QUOTED.

The gravel hauling from the old cemetery has been stopped, and while no injunction has been taken out, yet it is probable a general injunction will be secured from the court of common pleas to prevent any person from taking away gravel or sand from the cemetery in the future.

The survey of Engineer George showed that there was not a place where the cemetery territory had not been encroached upon and it ranged in width from 14 to 35 feet. When the engineer finished his survey it was given to the mayor and he went to the office of the solicitor, and together they went to the old cemetery and ordered the people to stop hauling gravel. The order was obeyed at once.

Chairman Peach stated that Cemetery Trustee Dickey visited the old cemetery and on investigation found four or five coffins exposed. Action will be taken at once and at least 40 bodies will be moved to another cemetery.

The section in the ordinance book relating to the old cemetery is as follows:

"No person or persons shall injure, damage or defoul any building, bridge, culvert, railing, fence, tree box, lamp post, shrubbery, gravestone, tombstone, monument or any other property of value within the limits of the city of East Liverpool."

No penalty is attached to the above section, but there is a section that provides for any violation of laws where penalty is not mentioned. The fine shall not exceed $10 and costs of prosecution.

Died Yesterday.

A 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Derringer, of Helana, died yesterday morning. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Greene officiating. Interment will be made in the Long Run cemetery.

They Got Permission.

This morning the agent for the Adams Express company received permission from Humane Agent Miller to work one of their horses in the wagon. The agent examined the horse and found that it was fit to be worked.

Three Weeks.

The assessors in the city will not be able to complete their work before three weeks. The new rule makes it much harder for them and will add at least a week to their work.

Dedication Services.

The Salem Elks will dedicate their new lodge building next Thursday evening. A number of local Elks will attend the celebration.

Deal Practically Closed.

Charles E. Macrum has returned from Lisbon and states that he found numerous sites for the glass house which he proposes to erect in that village for a $5,000 bonus and a free site. He says the deal is practically closed and his company will spend about $25,000 erecting the plant.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

COMMISSION TO MEET TOMORROW
NIGHT.

To Look Over the Plans for the Building as Submitted by the Architects.

The Carnegie library commission will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of looking over plans for the new library.

Tomorrow is the last day for the architects to hand in plans, and any person who wants the job or a chance at it will have to send in their sketches by tomorrow evening. It is not known how many architects have entered the competition, but the commission will have plenty of plans to select from when they meet.

Mr. Peach, in speaking of the matter this afternoon, stated that the commission would select the plans without regard to the architect, and the best plans would be chosen.

Taken to Imperial.

The remains of Joseph Chambers were taken to Imperial this morning for interment. The funeral services were conducted at his late home on Avondale street yesterday afternoon by Dr. Clark Crawford.

Fixed It Up.

The young business man who was arrested Saturday for embezzlement succeeded in getting somebody to come to his relief late in the evening, and is once more a free man.

Open in the Morning.

The new telephone company will open their new exchange in this city tomorrow morning with 250 phones. The other phones will be put in operation as soon as possible.

Able to Be Out.

Township Trustee Lloyd was able to be at the office last Saturday for the first time in five months. He is slowly regaining his health, but is still very weak.

For India Sufferers.

Last evening at the meeting of the Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church between $30 and $40 was collected for the India sufferers.

Probate Court.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special).—Judge Boone has appointed Charles Jamison administrator of the estate of Ira Smith, deceased, late of Fairfield township; bond $5,000.

Lisbon's First Auto.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special).—Cyrus Main has purchased an automobile. It has arrived here and is the first machine of the kind ever brought to Lisbon.

A Patrol Box.

It would be a good scheme to place a new patrol box at the bridge. It is thought the box would pay for itself

Fixing Wires.

The fire bell tapped several times Saturday. It was caused by parties working on telephones.

Marriage License.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special).—Francis F. O'Hanlon and Catharine Stoffel, both of East Liverpool.

NO TROUBLE AT TRENTON

Manufacturers Will Pay Either
Scale to Keep Potteries Running.

CANNOT AFFORD TO STOP

And Consider the Filling of Orders of More Importance Than Either Scale.

NO DANGER OF STRIKE NOW.

Trenton, N. J., April 30.—(Special.)

—The fact that the Trenton pottery manufacturers are enjoying unusual prosperity will probably prevent any trouble tomorrow over the refusal of some of the operatives to accept the new wage scale. Their one consideration is to keep the shops running, and they are generally willing to pay either the present or the new scale of wages.

The manufacturers' committee will probably convene and arrange the matter should the men refuse to work, and it is believed here that present wage rates will be continued in operation.

THOS. C. HILL.

Bought the Printing Outfit.

Proprietor Cutshall, of the Waterford Magnet, was in the city today and purchased the city printing outfit which was found in the stable of the Bradshaw property. The price paid for the outfit is not known, but Peach says he got all it was worth.

Gapin Will be Here.

Gapin, pitcher for the Pittsburg college base ball team last season, has accepted a position at the Standard pottery and will arrive here this week. He will play ball with the Standard pottery league team.

To the Country.

Ex-Councilman George W. Ashbaugh will move to the country tomorrow. Mr. Ashbaugh has purchased the George Wells' place near Pleasant Heights.

Awarded a Contract.

Coats & Brown, of Rochester, were awarded the contract Saturday for paving the streets in the addition of the Southside Land company.

Married Last Week.

Mrs. Annie Chapman, of this city, was married last week to J. H. Knight, of Pittsburg. The couple will go to housekeeping in Pittsburg.

To Toronto.

A large number of wheelmen visited Toronto yesterday. They report the roads as being good for this time of the year.

A Wellsville Arrest.

Lena Logan was arrested Saturday night at Wellsville for being drunk and otherwise disorderly on the streets of that city.

The Grand Jury.

A number of people from the city went to Lisbon this morning to attend the opening session of the grand jury.

Opened a Stone Quarry.

Phillip Debee has opened a stone quarry on the hill above the old road leading to the camp ground.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

Albert Hetzell, of Mulberry street, was compelled to go to the home of his parents in Butler, Pa., Saturday on account of being ill with grip.

Daniel McKinnon, jr., of Elm street, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. Laughlin, of Pennsylvania avenue, near Columblana park, is very ill with pneumonia.

Cyrus Caldwell has sold his residence on High street to Mr. Boso; consideration $650.

Within the past few weeks a number of lots in the orchard have been sold, and only four lots in that addition remain unsold. These will likely be disposed of this week.

A child of William Orin is threatened with fever.

Persons who have occasion to drive over the road between here and Smith's Ferry complain about the many stones that are in the roadway. Joseph McKinnon has taken a number of stones from the road, but still the road is very rough.

A washout in the river bank opposite Needham street is being filled in.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Deringer, of Helana, is very ill.

Mrs. Blanche House, of Railroad street, who has been spending several days at Scio visiting friends, has returned home.

Albert Heckathorne, of Elm street, has stored his goods and with his family has gone to South Beaver township, where they will remain for several months.

Motorman Albert Dietz has moved his family from the city to a house on St. George street.

The session of the Second United Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting this week. Only routine business is to be transacted.

Mrs. Archie Searight returned to the city Saturday evening after visiting friends in Cleveland for several days.

The regular quarterly conference was held in the Second M. E. church Saturday evening.

The motormen held their regular monthly meeting in Chambers hall on Mulberry street Saturday night. Routine business was transacted.

Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in the Ferguson & Hill hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Prohibitionists have 14 delegates to the state convention to select and will also reorganize the county executive committee by nominating a chairman. A vote will be taken as to the choice of the presidential candidates, and it is expected the convention will be solid for Woolley and Swallow as candidates for president and vice president, respectively. The state convention meets at Columbus May 24 and 25.

Another important move that will be made will be that of organizing a local Prohibition league or club.

New Checking System.

A new checking system has been inaugurated at the freight depot and the chances for a package of ware being lost are less than ever before. The siding at the outbound platform hold 14 cars, and every morning a tin box is filled with cards, upon which is printed the number of the car. When a roller places a cask in a car he takes a card out of the box and gives it to the checkman. In this manner a complete record of a cask is kept until it leaves the station.

We have been receiving this week the finest line of men's and boys' soft Madras and silk dress shirts in the city. You want to see these.

THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

—Mrs. Frank Ryan, of Bethany, W. Va., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, of Avondale street.

SOUTH SIDE.

The majority of Southside citizens are of the opinion that there should be at least one officer of the law in this part of the district. Drunkenness and rowdiness are of common occurrence, especially on Sundays.

The Rock Spring grounds are being cleaned up and put in shape for the coming season.

Misses Della Mercer and Mamie Fowler are the guests of their uncle, T. R. Cunningham.

Miss Anna Stockenburger, who was in Chester a few days last week, has gone to Steubenville to assist in the Free Methodist work there.

Walter Banfield returned to his home at Beaver Saturday after a visit with his cousin, Richard Banfield, jr.

Mrs. Tamar Kirk, who is nearly 91 years of age, had her picture taken for the first time last Saturday.

Jesse Allison returned home from Mt. Clemens, Mich., Saturday. His health is somewhat improved and he will return in about a month for another course of treatment.

It is expected that passenger trains will be run over the Panhandle into Chester when the next schedule goes into effect, which will probably be about May 10.

A. E. McDonald, of Congo, candidate for sheriff, was in Chester Saturday.

Saturday was pay day for the laborers on the pottery.

Robert Hobbs will soon commence the erection of a building on his lot near the blacksmith shop.

Miss Daisy Bambrick, of New Cumberland, was the guest of her brother, Tom Bambrick, Saturday.

Howard Piper and family are now residents of the Southside, having moved recently from Vandergrift, Pa. Mr. Piper is a machinist at the rolling mill.

Work was resumed today on the bridge for the electric road after a delay on account of lack of stone.

J. R. Little, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., was in Chester Saturday on business.

Richard Banfield is making quite a number of extensive improvements on his property on Virginia avenue.

COUNTY NEWS.

Happenings of More Than Local Interest Around Columbiana County and Vicinity.

Fisher Brothers, of New Waterford, have sold their Negley creamery.

The new school building at New Waterford was formally dedicated last week. Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college, delivered the address.

John Suffil, of Rogers, is seeking the position of deputy mine inspector, to succeed R. I. Davis, of East Palestine.

State Librarian C. B. Galbreath, of East Palestine, has been chosen as one of the judges for the National college oratorical contest, which will be held shortly at Madison, Wis.

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron is interested in a Columbus incorporation known as the Columbus Chain company, which may locate an extensive plant in Youngstown. With a number of other stockholders he is now in Youngstown looking over available sites for the location of the plant.

HEIR TO $16,000.

WILLIAM GEORGE BEVAN, EAST END YARDMAN,

Gets News of His Father's Death in England a Comfortable Legacy.

Within the past week William George Bevan, a yardman employed at the flint mill of the Potters' Mining and Milling company, received word that his father had died in England seven weeks ago, and that a fortune amounting to $16,000 had been left to him. Mr. Bevan was seen Saturday evening and said: "Yes, the report that I have fallen heir to that amount of money is so, but I do not expect to go to the old country to claim it. I am the only heir and am now making arrangements to have all of my father's property sold and expect to receive the amount in June." Mr. Bevan has been employed at the flint mill for over a year and is one of the best known men in the suburb. He has been working for $1.50 a day and will quit laboring when he receives the money.

AT Y. M. C. A. HALL.

The Evangelistic Meetings of Sunday Were Rich in Interest.

There was a very nice audience present on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The song service was one of unusual interest. Ed. H. Macintosh rendered two selections, and a quartet, composed of the Misses Maple, Messrs. Cartwright and Campbell, added much to the delight of the occasion.

The evangelist talked along the line of mission and slum work and related several incidents showing the wonderful power of human instrumentality, backed by the blessing of God. Rev. J. C. Taggart was present at the afternoon service and led in an earnest and fervent prayer, pleading that God might raise up human instrumentalities which shall overturn and root out the vice, drunkenness and immorality which so strongly controls in East Liverpool.

Song service was much enjoyed in the evening, Mr. Cartwright rendering a solo and the choir singing a number of appropriate gospel songs. Evangelist MacGregor is a great lover of song, asserting that such service, in his estimation, will hold sway in the sweet bye and bye, in the "city not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The sermon last night was intensely interesting to any one who believes in practical, experimental religion on this earth. It will do you good to hear the doctrine taught if you are heart hungry for pure life here and happiness in eternity.

Praise service at 7:30 tonight. Regular service commences at 8 o'clock. You have a pressing invitation to be present. The evangelist's religion is eager for the presence of those who are lost in sin and who are eager to step out of the darkness into the marvelous light and liberty of the gospel of the Son of God.

Congressman Tayler's Old Desk.

The desk in the office of Justice Daniel McLane is the first desk used by Hon. Robert W. Tayler after he was admitted to the bar. Mr. Tayler's office was then in the Surles building on Fourth street. When he was in the city several weeks ago he called at the office of Mr. McLane and was surprised to find the old piece of office furniture still in use.

We want to command the clothing trade of this city. We know we can only get this by giving you the best goods for the least money. We are in a position to do this, as we are manufacturers and manufacture all our own goods. Do you see the point?

CONTRACTS LET FOR NEW CHURCH

Vestry of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church Opened Bids.

COST WILL BE $14,924

Exclusive of Furnishings Which Will Run the Total Cost Up to About $16,000.

WORK WILL BEGIN AT ONCE.

The contract for the erection of the new Episcopal church was let Saturday evening. The contract for the stone work was let to George Phillips and the frame work was given to Contractor Harvey McHenry. The total cost of the building alone will be $14,924.

This price is exclusive of any furnishings and when entirely completed the church will cost probably $16,000. The vestry hope to be able to lay the corner stone within a month. Work on the foundation will begin this week.

LIVERPOOL PLAYERS.

Are Subject to Some Comment by the Sporting Writers of Two Papers.

Sporting papers last week had the following to say of East Liverpool players:

Mercer seems to have his eye on the ball, and, of course, he gets to first in pretty fast time, but he has not shown up well at third base. It is not fair to pronounce him a failure until he has had the benefit of a thorough trial, but he does not seem to be at home on third base.

"I don't think Shaw is in shape to do himself justice behind the bat. He does not look strong or hardened enough for the hard usage catchers have to stand. The fans will be glad to see what McAllister can do in that important position. This is not a 'knock' on Shaw, mind you."

THREE MEN.

Took a Buggy Ride Yesterday Morning But the Horse Left Them at a Corner.

An exciting runaway took place on Jackson street yesterday morning. Three young men were coming down the street in a buggy when the horse took a notion to run. When the corner of Second street was reached two of the young men were thrown from the buggy and the third decided it would be safer to jump and he alighted on his head in the road. The horse continued to the railroad track, turned down the track and at the flint mill the buggy was left behind. The horse was captured further down the track none the worse for its journey. The young men were not injured beyond a few scratches and bruises.

The Wheel Came Off.

Yesterday Lash Welch and three companions came to the city to attend a funeral. As they were turning the corner at Franklin and Sixth street a wheel of their vehicle caught in a street car track and was torn off. Repairs were made in a short time.

WEST END CHAPEL.

James Pittenger, of the Seminary, Occupied the Pulpit Last Night.

A very interesting and instructive sermon was preached at the West End chapel last night by James Pittenger, a student at the Western Theological seminary, Allegheny. Mr. Pittenger has not yet completed his course of studies for the ministry, but his sermon last night showed careful preparation and contained many excellent thoughts. He has a good voice and splendid delivery and will undoubtedly become one of the brightest ministers in the Presbyterian church.

KNOCKED DOWN.

Horse Frightened at the Locomobile and a Woman Came Near Being Injured.

Saturday evening a horse driven by Will Douglass frightened at the locomobile and started to run. A lady who was standing at the corner of Sixth and Franklin street waiting for a car was struck and knocked down. She was thrown clear around a telephone pole, but luckily was not hurt. The driver as soon as he could get his horse stopped went back and investigated.

A Trip to Cuba.

Wilfred B. Schott will lecture at the Grand tomorrow evening upon the subject, "A Trip to Cuba With the Boys of Co. E." The lecture is given under the auspices of the veterans of '98 and is illustrated with over 300 views of the journey of the company. Mr. Schott is a good talker and everywhere the lecture has been given it has not failed to please.

Morris Took It.

Saturday evening somebody tied a horse to a telephone pole in the Diamond and left the animal standing there. It began to make trouble at once and objected very much to standing. Officer Morris came along and took the horse to a livery stable.

How to Dry Rubber Boots.

It was a problem how to dry out hip rubber boots. In the sitting room there was an open grate fire which was covered every night with fine coal and a few shovelfuls of ashes, so that the room never became quite cold. We found that if we heated a piece of old flannel as hot as possible and stuffed it down into the foot of a boot and stood the boot in front of the fireplace it was as dry as a bone next morning. The handiest thing to keep the boot leg open is a spring steel corset rib about 18 inches long by three-quarter inch in width.—Forest and Stream.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1900.

This Date In History—April 30.

- 1824—Chevalier Bayard, last of the knights errant, died in Italy; born 1475. Bayard came honestly by his martial disposition, three of his immediate ancestors having been killed in battle and his father many times wounded in the wars of his king. He entered the service at 18 and in his first battle captured a standard of colors. He died in battle, and when he fell the cause was lost.
- 1823—Francis Xavier de Laval, Montmorency, first Canadian Roman Catholic bishop, born in Laval, France; died 1708.
- 1803—John Count de Tilly, famous Imperialist soldier in the Thirty Years' war, died.
- 1771—Hosea Ballou, founder or reorganizer of the Universalist church in America, born at Richmond, N. H.; died 1852.
- 1769—George Washington inaugurated first president at New York.
- 1664—James Montgomery, British poet, died; born 1772.
- 1806—Gustav Freytag, the popular German novelist, author of "Soll und Haben" and other notable works, died at Wiesbaden; born 1816.

The supply of Boers and kopjes in South Africa seems inexhaustible.

It's not who beat Quay, but the fact that he was beaten that is important.

The Clarke jury only followed the example of the principals in the case by disagreeing.

Potato Patch Pingree declares himself a Democrat. He is now "smaller potatoes" than ever.

That Columbus woman who is suing for divorce from her dead husband must have had a lively recollection of the departed.

GROSVENOR FIGURES.

"Old Figgers" Grosvenor prophesies 270 electoral votes for McKinley and 174 for Bryan. He gives Bryan Kentucky and Maryland and classes Delaware and Kansas as doubtful. In September, 1896, Grosvenor predicted McKinley would have 278. He had 271.

WITHIN YOUR MEANS.

If you must be a sport, be as near as possible to what the world knows as a true sport. Pay your way. Don't beat your barber, your shoe merchant, your landlord or landlady, your tailor, the furniture dealer, the telephone company, the laundryman, the doctor, the druggist, the secret societies, the livery stables, and even the poor and patient and long-suffering printer. The dead beat eventually travels a rough and stormy pathway. But he should travel a still rougher one. He should be pilloried and posted on every hand. When he lies like a cur to you, and you know that he has premeditatedly beat you, tell your friends and neighbors the plain, truthful and unvarnished story, thus making it impossible for the fellow to beat them. When a human being becomes a beat, and makes boast that the world owes him a living, and he is going to have that living, no matter who suffers, every decent young man and respectable young woman should give him the cold shoulder and utterly ostracize and bar him from society, until he becomes converted from the error of his way and is willing to toil and earn his living. Mark the beat. Spot the beat. Beat him out of the city. We have several of him in this neck of woods. We know whereof we speak. We have been victimized to the queen's taste. We have had all we want of such vermin. Charity is a noble and God-like trait; but charity does not avail with such miserable creatures. Make them pay their way.

THE ARMY CANTEN.

Chaplain Pierce is quoted as asserting that the army canteen is a blessing and a comfort in the Philippines. If Chaplain Pierce is honest in his assertion and thought, he is the most egregiously mistaken man on the island of Luzon. If he is dishonest, he is simply a tool in the pay of the liquor traffic. The army canteen in the Philippines is an unmitigated, blasting curse to the soldiers of Uncle Sam. Experience in that hot climate teaches that the use of intoxicants is much more harmful to the human system than their use in this climate, and the volunteers were solemnly warned of this fact by the army surgeons before landing, and the after experience of the men demonstrated this to be the case. Any man of common sense knows that the constant use of alcoholic beverages will create an appetite for more alcohol, and the soldier, like the civilian, given an opportunity for the spending of his money at the canteen, will branch out and overflow into the accursed saloons existing in Manila and become unfit for service, an imposition on sober soldiers, men who have to do duty for the drunkard. Uncle Sam, with his accursed canteen, makes drunkards and then punishes them for drunkenness. History demonstrates the fact that sober soldiers, total abstainers, are head and shoulders above tipplers in every line of duty—guard and sentry duty, on the march, in the camp and on the battle field. The drunkard and tippler is a fraud in civil life and in business life; he's a failure as a workman and a failure as an employer; and the same rule holds good in military life, in time of peace or in time of war, and Chaplain Pierce is either a fool or a scoundrel when he advocates the maintenance of the army canteen. Kill the accursed thing, President McKinley, if it lies in your power, and give us a chance to overthrow the demon of alcohol, in the shape of the licensed liquor traffic, which is gnawing at the vitals of the prosperity of this great republic. Kill it, in the name of God and humanity, and thousands of men, women and children all over this land will rise up and call down blessings upon your head. "For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

THE LAWBREAKER.

He's bold and defiant, by day and by night,
In sneering at law he takes huge delight;
He says, with a grin, "I'm a law to myself,
So, just hang your statutes up on the shelf.
I've got a pull—yes, a pull of my own
With the fellow who sits just back of the throne;
And if you interfere I'll put you to rout,
And teach you that I am the boss knocker out."
Just let this great bluffer, of blowhardy function,
Go up, good and strong, against an injunction,
And he'll whine, like a cur, and beg hard for pity,
And swear he'll obey all the laws of the city.

PEGEE COOLEY.

Meat Market Changes Hands.

Corry (Pa.) Leader.

Ed. Hubbard, who has sold his meat market on South Center street, will leave Sunday for East Liverpool, O., where he has in partnership with Joseph Cogswell, also of this city, purchased the Bon Ton meat market, on Sixth street, which the new firm will take possession of on May 1. Mr. Hubbard will undoubtedly have excellent success in his new venture. He has had 30 years' experience in the business and his market has always been a model of neatness and cleanliness. Mr. Cogswell is also thoroughly experienced in the business and together these two gentlemen will make a strong team. We are sorry to lose them, but hope they will thrive in their new location.

Realty Transfers.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special)—The following transfers have been recorded:

Salem Land company to Henry Moss, lot 24 in their first addition, $250; Rachael Hamilton to Charity A. Burnett, lot 44 Wellsville, $2,750; R. P. Hayes to Sarah J. Hayes, 47 1-2 acres in Butler township, $995.

Had His Name Changed.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special)—Cary David Wolf, of Knox township, was in probate court Saturday, and had his name changed to Cary David Heestand. He was brought up by the Heestand family, and is generally known by that name. He was married recently, and desired to legalize the name.

Counterfeit Dollar.

A clever counterfeit silver dollar is in circulation throughout this section, and business men are warned to be on the lookout for it. The coin is of the date of 1891 and so perfect is the imitation that it can hardly be detected from the genuine.

Real Estate Deals.

The A. R. Mackall property, corner of Fourth street and Mulberry alley, was sold Saturday afternoon by Attorney G. Y. Travis to John Kerr, sr. The Kerr property at the lower end of Fifth street has been purchased by J. M. Aten.

G. A. R. Encampment.

The state G. A. R. encampment will be held at Findlay May 8, 9 and 10. Governor Nash is expected to make an address. An effort will probably be made at the convention to have the G. A. R. permanent headquarters in Columbus.

Anecdotes of Colonel Ege.

Colonel Ege was a famous character in the early days. Although living in Doniphan county, he was often in Atchison, followed by a pack of hounds. He was a high toned southern gentleman with a kind heart.

One day while returning home from this city he came across a man whose wagon was stuck in the mud in Independence creek bottom. Colonel Ege at once started in to help the man pry out his wagon with a fence rail. While both were working away Ege became angry and yelled to the man, "Lift, you son of a gun; you are not lifting a pound." The man picked up the end gate of the wagon and split it over Ege's head, laying him up for three weeks. Ege had his hat off when he was struck and was so bald before coming to Kansas that he was known as the Bald Eagle of Maryland.

Ege always carried a pistol and was always trying to shoot through somebody's hat without hitting him. One day, at the Independence creek ferry, he shot at a man, but aimed a little low and creased him. But Ege was always a gentleman; he took the man into his home and tenderly cared for him until he recovered.—Atchison Globe.

A Philadelphia Slander.

Bilger—You remember Tompkins? Yes? I saw him down at Philadelphia the other day. I was in the car, he on the depot platform. I stuck my arm out of the window to shake hands with him, and do you know before I could get hold of his hand—

Jigger—The train started, eh?
"No, my arm went to sleep!"—Types.

The New Cook.

"Maggie, did you make that chicken broth as I ordered you?"
"O! did, mom."
"What did you do with it?"
"Sure, an' that ilse would O! do wid it but fade it to the chickens, mom?"—Boston Courier.

The Western Union Telegraph company have begun to string an additional wire from Cleveland to Rochester. A connection with the new line will be made with the local office.

A 600 light transformer was erected in Dewey lane by the light company Saturday afternoon.

to Be Taken to Chicago
For

PRECAUTIONARY TREATMENT

Wooster Unable to Say Councilman
Smith's Dog Was Really Mad But

NO RISK WILL BE TAKEN.

Tomorrow morning four boys who were bitten by dogs during the scare a short time ago will be sent to the Pasteur Institute, Chicago, for treatment. J. T. Smith will send his sons, Clair and Herbert, and a son of Mr. Harry and one of Mr. Hendricks.

Mr. Smith has received a report from the agricultural experiment station at Wooster. The chemist was not able to state positively whether or not the animal had hydrophobia. Mr. Smith does not, however, wish to take any chances and the boys will have the best treatment possible.

A DOG CASE.

John Hum Says He Never Owned a
Dog and Wont Pay
Tax.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special.)—Constable Morrison of this place, levied upon the fish cart used by John Hum, of Lisbon, upon a judgment rendered against him for dog tax. The cart was at once replevined from the constable by Mrs. Hum, who is the owner of the property. Mr. Hum refused to pay the tax because he never owned or harbored a dog and the tax was wrongfully charged against him. A summons was left at his house while he and his wife were away from home and judgment taken against him without his knowledge, as he never knew that a suit had been brought against him until after judgment had been taken. When Hum learned of the judgment he went to the officers and explained the circumstances and asked them to try the case, but this they refused to do and insisted that he pay the judgment and costs whether it was right or wrong.

THIEVES SENTENCED.

Two East Liverpool and Three Leetonia Men Sentenced by Judge
Boone Today.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special.)—George Cox and James Mullen, both of East Liverpool, pleaded guilty in probate court this morning to stealing $2.50 worth of lead pipe from Arbuthnot Bros. They were given 10 days by Judge Boone. Ed. Huddleson, John Haley and James Starr, all of Leetonia, pleaded guilty this morning in probate court to petit larceny and each was fined $5 and costs. They stole $3.50 of good iron from Cherry Valley Iron company.

M. E. WOMEN TO KNOCK

Will Again Ask Admission as Delegates.

WARM DEBATE IS PREDICTED.

Question of Seating the Provisional Delegates to Be Considered at the General Conference, in Chicago Laymen Expected to Have Required Two-Thirds.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Rev. David S. Monroe, secretary of the Methodist general conference, which meets in Chicago Wednesday, declared to-day that the question of the seating of the provisional delegates will bring on the first discussion after the conference convenes, and will probably be referred to a special committee. It will require only 189 votes from the 565 regular delegates to rule out the provisional reports, but it is thought the laymen will get more than the required two-thirds vote of the conference.

The proposed admission of women delegates also is expected to cause a warm debate. In 1888 the general conference established a precedent when the bishop decided that women delegates should not be seated, and their names were not called. In 1896, Secretary Monroe called the names of three women who were present as delegates, but they remained without their title being disputed for one day only. During that time they voted for Dr. Monroe as secretary, but at the following session they withdrew from the conference.

At a mass meeting to be held in the interest of city evangelization on Wednesday evening, May 16, at the Auditorium hall, John E. Ames, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preside, and the speakers will be Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, and Bishop Henry W. Warren, D. D., of Denver. The speakers for the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education society, to be held Thursday, May 17, in Studebaker hall, are Rev. W. H. W. Rees, D. D., Cincinnati; Rev. S. P. Cadman, D. D., New York; Rev. M. C. B. Mason, D. D., Cincinnati, and Bishop J. C. Hartzell, D. D.

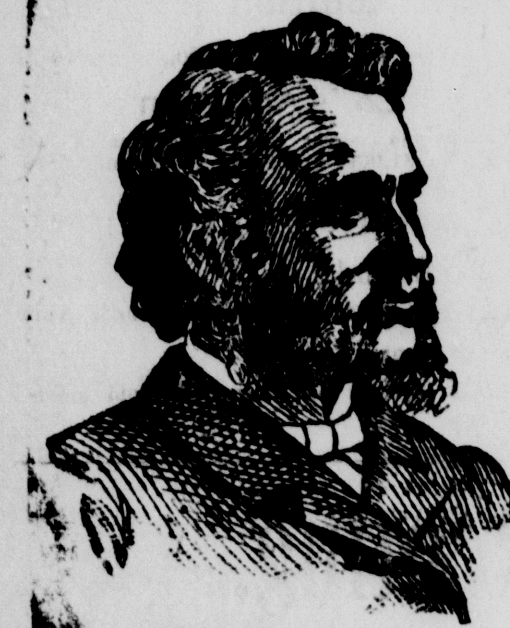

The speakers on the occasion of the anniversary of the board of education, to be held in Studebaker hall Wednesday evening, May 23, are Bishop D. A. Goodsell, D. D., and Rev. J. W. Bashford, president of the Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O. D. L. Rader, of Denver, has been added to the list of speakers for the anniversary of the Missionary society, to be held in Auditorium hall, Tuesday evening, May 8.

BISHOP HARTZELL PRAISES ENGLAND.

Said Boers Will Be Better Off Under Her Rule—Gift For Mission Purposes.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Bishop Hartzell, the missionary bishop to Africa of the Methodist Episcopal church in this country, preached Sunday morning at St. Paul's M. E. church. He arrived in New York Saturday, having just returned from a tour.

Speaking of the situation in South

strong, just government to bear in regions which never knew the law before.

Bishop Hartzell was also greatly pleased with the extension of the railways. Some man whom the bishop described as "one of the greatest men of the times," had shown him the plans for next year's extensions, to be constructed on the profits of this year. The bishop told the gentleman that he would pray for him. The bishop did not say that the man referred to was Cecil Rhodes, but those who listened to his remarks seemed to think that Rhodes was the man meant.

He said the railroads would enable

Africa, Bishop Hartzell expressed satisfaction over the success of the three great powers—England, France and Germany—in parcelling out the dark continent without wars resulting to the nations of Europe. He said in part:

Land—God bless her—the friend of missions everywhere, with Germany and France, and some of the smaller powers, is bringing the influence of the missionaries to carry the gospel to millions of black men.

Speaking of the South African war, he said:

"Don't be alarmed by that war. It is simply one of the incidents in the history of the continent. The Boers, as a people, are not fighting the British. Only a small fringe at the north is disaffected. Premier Schreiner takes pride in his loyalty to the queen. Out of that war will come unity. I see it clearly—a unity based upon grounds of mutual respect. The Boers in Cape Colony are far better off than those of the north, and those who are now fighting will be far better off when they are living under a truly republican form of government, which they do not have now."

It was announced that Bishop Hartzell had received extensive concessions from the British authorities in South Africa. He said he believed that he had been awarded the most extensive grant of land for missionary purposes ever made. He now wishes to secure $20,000 or $25,000 a year to carry on the work.

PREDICTS BRYAN'S ELECTION

William L. Wilson Said the Party Would Go Into the Fight Solid—Comments On Dewey's Candidacy.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 30.—William L. Wilson, author of the Wilson tariff bill, while in this city en route from Hot Springs to Nebraska City, Neb., where he is to be the guest of J. Sterling Morton, his associate in Cleveland's cabinet, said:

"It is to be McKinley and Bryan. Mr. Cleveland will not allow his name to be mentioned, and Dewey will not get an opportunity to see him voted down."

"Bryan will be nominated, but conditions are so changed that the campaign will be on new lines. Both sides have so many new conditions to confront that the old tactics will not do. I think the Democrats will win. We shall go into the fight solid."

Mr. Wilson gave expression to his views regarding the candidacy of Admiral Dewey. "He is innocent of the game of politics," he said, "and has blundered in his bluntness as blunt people often do. He will blunder out of it again as suddenly as he came in. Dewey does things suddenly. He generally anticipates and when the row is at its height he will surprise everybody by sailing away, or I am mistaken in the man."

PINGREE A DEMOCRAT.

Said He Believed the Hope of the People Was In That Party.

DETROIT, April 30.—Governor Pingree asserted in an interview that the hope of the people in this year's general election is in the Democratic party. The governor has always hitherto been an independent Republican. Speaking of the increasing power of trusts, governor Pingree said:

"There is no use in hoping that the Republican party will do anything with them."

"Are you prepared to announce your withdrawal from the Republican party?" the Governor was asked.

"There is no announcement about it. I only say what I have said all the while. You haven't heard me say anything against the Democrats for some time. I believe that the hope of the people is in the Democratic party this fall."

BARKER CLAIMS HOPEFULNESS.

Thinks Populists Have Fighting Chance to Win Presidency.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Wharton Barker, of this city, who has received the endorsement of some of the Populist state conventions for the nomination for president at the Cincinnati convention, was asked as to the effect of his nomination for the presidency by the Populists on Mr. Bryan's candidacy. Mr. Barker said: "There can no longer be a doubt in the mind of any one who considers the situation that at least 1,500,000 of the 2,000,000 Populist votes cast for Mr. Bryan in 1896 will this year be lost to him and cast for the presidential candidate of the People's party. That the Democratic leaders know this fact is made clear by the course of Hill, Patterson, Gorman and their associates. "The Democrats will probably give the nomination to some one else, and thus invite the Gold Democrats back into the fold."

Mr. Barker said the president would be renominated.

Mr. Barker says he thinks the Populists have a fighting chance to win the presidential fight.

MAY DELAY ROBERTS.

Boers Probably Have Wearied His Army.

AN URGENT NEED OF HORSES.

Returning of French's Army to Bloemfontein Indication That Pursuit of Boers Is Ended For Time Being—London People Discouraged.

LONDON, April 30.—The Standard's announcement that General French's cavalry is returning to Bloemfontein is clear proof that there is no further hope of catching the retreating Boers, and the London papers are beginning to display impatience at the practical failure of the elaborate operations of last week.

The Standard says: "It is disheartening to find that these elaborate manoeuvres have had so small a result."

The Daily Chronicle remarks: "We are reluctant to criticise Lord Roberts, but it is impossible to shut our eyes to the fact that during the last ten days we have gained very little from our enormous display of force."

Without doubt these operations have been of a very exhausting nature, and will entail further delay. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Times, writing on March 3, after the Paardeberg affair, describes Lord Roberts' army as a "wreck," because it was without horses and without transport. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Post speaks now of the urgent need at present and always of more horses.

There is very little news from other quarters.

CANADIANS' BRAVE WORK.

Led Fight In Driving Boers From a Kopje—The Gallant Otter Wounded.

LONDON, April 30.—A special dispatch from Thaba N'Chu, dated Thursday, describing the fight at Israel's Poort,

LIEUTENANT COLONEL WILLIAM D. OTTER.

which is about seven miles west of Thaba N'Chu, says:

"Three hundred Boers were strongly entrenched on two kopjes. The place of honor was given to the Canadians who advanced very cleverly under their dashing commander, Colonel Otter. The Boers reserved their fire until the Canadians had reached the wire entanglements. Then they opened with a terrific hail of bullets."

"The Canadians, however, had taken good cover, and were not greatly damaged. They were ably supported in the assault by the Grahamstown horse. Successive rushes brought them right up to the kopjes, when Colonel Otter was struck twice, one bullet inflicting a nasty but not dangerous wound in the neck and the other tearing the bandages from his shoulder. But he still cheered his men on until the kopjes were carried. The Boers bolted. The British losses were 20 in killed and wounded."

BOER DELEGATES COMING.

Will Sail for the United States Next Thursday.

THE HAGUE, April 30.—The members of the Boer peace commission will sail from Rotterdam to the United States next Thursday evening by the Holland-American line steamship Maasdam.

Dr. Leyds and Dr. Mueller will not accompany the delegates.

The delegates will visit Amsterdam today.

MAY NEED VIGOROUS METHODS.

Trick of Some of the Boers to Get in the Rear of the British.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 30.—It is understood that the British will continue to hold Thaba N'Chu, owing to its strategic importance, and especially with a view of checking future raids. The commandos that had recently been operating in the direction of Thaba N'Chu are melting away, the Boers quietly returning to their farms, and many of them taking the oath of allegiance.

Experience has shown in many cases, however, that this is only a pretense to enable the Boers to create disturbances in the rear of the British, and vigorous methods will probably be necessary to force real disarmament.

Interesting Developments Ahead.

THABA N'CHU, April 30.—The adjacent country is now clear, the Boers having retired toward Ladybrand. There are interesting developments ahead.

Olivier Reported Wounded.

ALIWAAL, April 30.—It is reported here that Commandant Olivier is wounded.

NINE KILLED, 40 HURT.

A Bridge Fell Into a Crowd That Was In Attendance at the Paris Exposition.

PARIS, April 30.—When the crowds were in great numbers in the exhibition grounds and merriment was at its height a foot bridge leading to the Celestial Globe annex broke and the ruin was precipitated upon a crowded avenue below. Nine persons were killed and 40 wounded.

TO PROHIBIT LIQUOR SELLING.

Pressure on McKinley to Prevent Traffic In Our Possessions.

NEW YORK, April 30.—At a supplementary meeting of the Ecumenical conference, Sunday, the subject of "The Liquor and Opium Traffic" was discussed. The baleful effects of liquor and opium on the natives of every country where missionaries are working were explained in detail. It was announced that strong pressure has been brought to bear on President McKinley and some of his predecessors to prohibit its sale in lands over which this country exercises control—notably the Alaskan territory, Hawaii and the Philippines.

At Carnegie Hall, during the afternoon, there was held a mass meeting under the auspices of the West Side branch of the Y. M. C. A. Women were obliged to find seats in the balcony.

Rev. Dr. John G. Paton, of the New Hebrides, was the principal speaker, though many others participated in the exercises.

METHODIST ARMY 100,000 STRONG.

Bishop Thoburn Plans to Start Movement at Chicago For Salvation of Souls.

CHICAGO, April 30.—A Methodist army, 100,000 strong, consecrated and banded together for the salvation of souls, may be the outcome of the great gathering of Methodism which is about to be held in this city.

Bishop J. H. Thoburn, whose field of work is in India, and who has been a missionary and a leader of missionaries nearly all his life, is the man who will propose to the general conference this great crusade, and whose eloquence will urge that it be at once begun.

He will arrive in this city Wednesday, and it is understood that he will at once begin to gather around him supporters for the effort to convince the conference that the "consecrated army of one hundred thousand" has the field ripe before it.

Tried to Murder His Wife.

NEWARK, N. J., April 30.—Edward Norley, 40 years old, went to the home of C. W. Stuart, where his wife is employed as a domestic, and attempted to kill her. Thinking she would die, he went into the rear yard and cut his throat. He died afterward. The woman will recover. Norley was worth $18,000 a few years ago, but lost money, and drank heavily. His wife left him two years ago. Since then he had served several terms in the workhouse and county jail.

Wife of General Wilson Dead.

HAVANA, April 30.—The wife of Major General James H. Wilson, military governor of the department of Matanzas-Santa Clara, died from the effects of burns accidentally received while driving with her daughter. While alighting from her carriage she stepped upon a match, which ignited her dress. She was terribly burned.

General Rutherford Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—General Allan Rutherford, clerk of the Maryland court of appeals, died here of consumption, aged about 60 years.

Harry S. Martindale Dead.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Harry S. Martindale, a well-known clubman, cross-country rider, died here.

FAMINE APPALLING.

Nearly 100,000,000 Starving In India.

DR BARROWS' STARTLING FIGURES.

A Mass Meeting Held In New York Under the Auspices of the Ecumenical Conference to Raise Money For the Sufferers—Helen Gould a Contributor.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Carnegie hall was not filled when the Indian mass meeting, under the auspices of the Ecumenical conference, was called to order. President Seth Low, of Columbia university, was the first speaker. He contrasted the population of the United States, 75,000,000, with India's 250,000,000, and said that the United States, to be as thickly populated, would have 750,000,000.

Mr. Low then introduced Rev. Dr. John H. Barrows, president of Oberlin university. Mr. Barrows described the differences in the selfishness of castes. He said that India was a continent rather than a country. A continent with nearly 300,000,000 people, one-third of which were on the verge of starvation.

Bishop Henry C. Potter said that the evident interest displayed at the meeting should focus itself. It should become operative and active.

Rev. Dr. Johnson, a missionary of Central India, said he had passed through three Indian famines. He told some pitiful and pathetic stories of the sacrifices of women—especially of women for their children.

The daughter of Rami Bey was introduced by Chairman Low. Her story was about 250 girls saved in the famine of 1897 by her mother. Others also talked.

Chairman Low announced that 20 students from the Union theological seminary would take up a collection, and added:

"The Chinese merchants of British Columbia united a few days ago to send a collection for the sufferers in the burned city of Ottawa. If the Chinese have learned the lesson of brotherhood, how much more should we exemplify it."

A list of names of prominent men was read as composing a committee to collect money for the famine sufferers. The contributions tonight amounted to $1,667. Miss Helen M. Gould, who occupied one of the boxes, pledged $200.

FORECAST OF THE SENATE.

Clark Election Case Expected to Come Up On Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—So far as can now be foreseen, the week will be given up largely to the Alaska code bill and to appropriation bills in the senate. Senator Hawley, chairman of the committee on military affairs, has given notice that he will call up the army appropriation bill on Monday, and when this bill is disposed of, it is probable that the fortifications bill will be taken up. There will be an effort to secure final disposition of the Alaskan bill, but as there is almost as much opposition to the Carter amendment as there was to the amendment suggested by Senator Hansbrough, it is impossible to say whether the effort will succeed.

Senator Chandler, on Wednesday, will ask consideration of the resolution in the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, but there will be a request for more time to read the testimony and the case probably will go over for at least for several days more.

On Thursday the senate will listen to eulogies on the late Representative Baird, of Louisiana.

PRO-BOER MEETING REFERRED.

Absence of a Quorum Prevents Action In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—In the midst of the consideration of bills of minor importance in the senate, Mr. Pettigrew called up the following and asked for its immediate consideration: "Whereas, from the hour of achieving their own independence, the people of the United States have regarded with sympathy the struggles of other people to free themselves from European domination, therefore,

"Resolved, That we watch with deep and abiding interest the heroic battle of the South African republic against cruelty and oppression, and our best hopes go out for the full success of their determined contest for liberty."

Mr. Lodge moved that it be referred to the committee on foreign relations. Without a word of debate the vote was taken, 81 senators voting in favor of reference and 11 against it. As the vote disclosed the absence of a quorum, an effort was made to secure one, but it was unsuccessful, and the senate adjourned. Party lines were not drawn in the vote to refer.

SOME STILL OPPOSE THE BILL.

Opposition to Change In the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The feature of the week in the house will be the Nicaraguan canal bill, which will be considered tomorrow and Wednesday. The elimination of the section relative to the fortification of the canal removes the objections entertained to it by the friends of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but because of that very fact the resentment of some of the Democrats has been aroused.

The bill, however, doubtless will command a very large majority when it comes to a vote. Thursday will be given up to the consideration of the "free homes" bill, and Friday to war claims.

RAILROADERS THREATEN A TIE-UP.

Arthur Says Engineers on New York Central Won't Strike.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30.—The striking employees of the New York Central have given the company until 1 o'clock this afternoon to grant their demands. If the concessions are not made by that time it is the intention of the strike leaders to extend the strike, and they predict it will be the largest in the history of railroads in the east.

CLEVELAND, April 30.—Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said that the engineers on the New York Central would not be affected by the threatened tie-up of that railroad. "The engineers have no grievance," he said, "and they cannot strike except in obedience to the laws of the organization. There will, in my opinion be no trouble."

The Rebel Paterno Captured.

MANILA, April 30.—Major General Lloyd Wheaton reports that Senor Paterno, the former president of the Filipino so-called cabinet, was captured in the mountains, near Trinidad, province of Benguet, April 25. Paterno recently, through relatives in Manila, requested and received permission to enter the American lines, but failed to appear. His relatives explained that he had been sick a long time and was an invalid. He was brought to San Fernando on a little ambulance by soldiers of the Forty-eighth regiment.

May Start For Cape Nome Today.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 30.—The formal rush to the gold fields of Cape Nome will be inaugurated today, when the steamer Jeanie, of the Pacific Steam Whaling company, the first steamer to start on the trip this year, is scheduled to sail, providing she arrives in the meantime from San Francisco.

REDUCED SCHOOL FUND.

Computations Prepared For Distribution In Pennsylvania—Estimated Amounts For Some Counties.

HARRISBURG, April 30.—The department of public instruction has finished making the computations for the distribution of the school fund for next year among the school districts.

A statement prepared at the school department and verified shows how much each county received last year and the reduced amount it will receive this year. That for this year is based on the biennial returns of the number of teachers and of children between 6 and 16 years of age in January, 1900. It is in part as follows:

Allegheny	524,431	538,440
Armstrong	55,275	50,445
Beaver	54,353	50,657
Bedford	47,572	42,345
Blairstown	76,415	71,187
Bradford	69,008	71,686
Butler	59,116	54,094
Cambria	32,565	79,512
Clearfield	31,495	75,078
Fayette	35,419	79,540
Greene	33,320	30,365
Huntingdon	41,114	38,338
Indiana	47,323	44,138
Lawrence	46,500	45,655
Mercer	62,164	55,580
Somerset	47,453	45,483
Warren	33,342	39,316
Washington	36,106	81,746
Westmoreland	130,431	124,340

In the above figures the cents are omitted.

AN ANSWER TO TAYLOR.

Beckham's Attorney Quotes Pennsylvania and Other Decisions In Support of Goebel Democrats' Attitude.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Lewis McQuown, attorney for J. C. W. Beckham, has prepared and will file his brief today in the supreme court in the case involving the title to the governorship of Kentucky. On the motion to dismiss, for want of jurisdiction in the supreme court, it is contended that the provisions of the constitution and statutes of Kentucky, governing the trial of contested elections for governor, afford "due process of law," within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States.

The different points made by Taylor are answered and decisions of courts in Pennsylvania and other states are quoted in upholding the position assumed by the Goebel Democrats.

GOV. TAYLOR IN KENTUCKY.

Not Believed He Will Be Arrested For Several Days.

FRANKFORT, KY., April 30.—The presence of Governor Taylor in this city was known to the local officers and to those in charge of the prosecution, and the fact that a warrant of arrest was not served upon him is construed to mean that the indictment in this case will be held up and no process issued on it for several days. The governor later went to Louisville.

The indictment was returned in open court the day after those against Finley, Powers, Clanton and others were returned, but it was not entered on the record and is now understood to be in the possession of Judge Cantrill.

Warrants Served on Sunday Players.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 30.—The Wheeling and New Castle teams figured in the first Sunday game ever attempted in Wheeling. A squire served warrants and bond was given. Then the chief of police appeared with 20 men, but he was soon convinced the players could not be arrested twice on the same charge and the game proceeded.

James McKean Dead.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—James Stitt McKean, president of the Union Trust company, and former postmaster of Pittsburgh, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, 505 South Highland avenue, after a week's illness.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., April 30.—William Holyard, who lived about seven miles from this place, shot and killed his wife and then killed himself. She refused to return and live with him.

Episcopal Conference to Aid Labor.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A two-day's conference of the church association for the advancement of the interests of labor began here, the sessions being devoted to religious services in a number of the Episcopal churches.

Damage Done by Forest Fires.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 30.—Great damage has resulted from forest fires in Pike county, Pa. The fire is believed to have started from matches dropped among the leaves by fishermen.

Large Crowd Greeted Him as He Passed
Through Pittsburg—Not on a Political Tour.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—The special train of Admiral Dewey, over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, arrived here last night. The train did not go into the station, but was transferred at Laughlin Junction. A large crowd of people had assembled to see the admiral at the different stations, and he greeted them from the platform of the car. The trip from Washington to Pittsburg was uneventful. At Connellsville about one-half of the population of the town was present to greet the admiral. He declined to discuss politics with those who called upon him, saying the trip had no political significance whatever.

NOT A POLITICAL TRIP.

Dewey Refused to Talk Politics Before
He Started.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Admiral Dewey was seen at his home before leaving the city for Chicago, and was asked if he had any statement to make regarding the presidency.

"No," said he. "I think it would be in bad taste for me to say anything of a political nature just at this time. As the admiral of the navy I accepted the invitations to visit Chicago, Jacksonville, St. Louis, Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, which cities asked me to be their guest, and I do not wish anything political to enter into the trip."

PORTE MAY SETTLE BY A TRICK.

May Conceal Payment by Arrangement
With Some Contractor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The porte has not yet replied to the note handed to Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister, by the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. Lloyd Griscom, regarding the indemnity claim, and the situation is unchanged.

In some quarters it is believed that a settlement will yet be made by means of some arrangement with private American contractors, concealing the actual payment, and thus relieving the Ottoman government from admitting responsibility for the losses occasioned at the time of the massacres.

Sixteen Delegates Can't Vote.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Sixteen delegates to the seventh general convention of the constitution grand lodge of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, which held its first session at the Auditorium, were denied the right to vote in the deliberations of that body, though the privilege of the floor was given to them.

Tanner to Undergo an Operation.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The skiagraph of Governor Tanner's anatomy, taken Saturday, was developed and showed clearly the presence of gall stones in the biliary ducts. The governor will return to Springfield today, where an operation will be performed by Dr. Senn.

To Guard Against American Poachers.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 30.—The fishermen of the west coast of Vancouver island are petitioning the Dominion government again for the establishment of a patrol to protect British Columbia halibut banks from American poaching schooners.

Death of a Missionary.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—A telegram was received here announcing the death in Shanghai of Miss Laura Haygood, a missionary of the Methodist church. She was a sister of the late Bishop Haygood, and founded the McTyre home for women in China.

Deeded to the Lord.

The most remarkable deed ever drawn may be seen on the private estate of a resident of Worcester in Massachusetts. It is chiseled on a rock on what is known as Rattlesnake hill, situated near the boundary line between Worcester and Leicester.

Old Solomon Parsons, who was widely known in Worcester county as an eccentric character, and particularly as a crank on the subject of religion, paid William C. Hall $125 for a parcel of land, and directed Hall to convey it by deed to the Almighty. In order that the greatest possible publicity might be given to his disposition of the property Parsons had the deed of transfer cut into the rock verbatim et literatim.

During his lifetime Parsons is said to have made several attempts to have the deed recorded, but the register of deeds, who was aware of his eccentricity, each time put him off with the explanation that no official record was required in the case of a transfer of real estate to the Almighty.

Parsons died intestate several years ago, and the administrator included the parcel of land on Rattlesnake hill in the inventory of the old gentleman's estate which he filed in the probate court. A wag of a lawyer raised the question of title, but the judge decided in the favor of the administrator.—New York Journal.

Our First Woman Editor.

According to the Hartford Courant, that paper in 1777 was owned and edited and managed by a woman, whose name comes down to modern days as "the Widow Watson." She had "exclusive charge" of the journal. After a couple of years Mrs. Watson married a leading citizen of Hartford, and after that date she no doubt let him advise and assist in the conduct of the paper. But she holds the record for the first woman editor in the country.

Clever Suggestion.

"How shall I prove the sincerity of my devotion?" asked the young man who had been so long coming to the point that doubt had begun to accumulate against him.

"Call the parson in as a witness," suggested the young lady.—Detroit Free Press.

An Ordinance Defining and Regulating Pawnbrokers.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to carry on the business of pawnbroker, or loaning money on jewelry or other personal property, in the city of East Liverpool, without first taking out a license from the mayor, and the mayor is hereby authorized to grant to any person of good moral character, who may apply therefor, a pawnbroker's license, which shall be issued under the corporate seal and signed by the mayor, and remain in force one (1) year from the date thereof, upon the payment therefor to the mayor by said applicant, the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars.

Section 2. Whoever loans money on deposits or pledges of personal property, or who pledges personal property, or chooses in action, on condition of selling the same back again at a stipulated price, is hereby defined and declared to be a pawnbroker.

Section 3. Any person so licensed shall keep a correct list and description, in a book for that purpose, of every article pledged or deposited with him or on which advances of money have been made or which may be purchased by him, which list and description shall at all times be open to the inspection of the mayor and marshal, or any of the police officers of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio; and the persons so licensed shall at all times, when required by the mayor or marshal or police officers aforesaid, produce and show any article so listed or described, which may be in his possession. He shall also register in such book the name and place of residence of the depositor and the time when deposit was made. All the entries shall be written in ink in the English language and no entry shall be erased, obliterated or defaced.

Section 4. Every person so licensed shall prepare and deliver to the mayor every day before the hour of 12 o'clock, m., a legible and correct copy from such register, of the description of all personal property, bonds, notes or other securities received or deposited or purchased during the preceding day, together with the hour at which the article was received, together with a description of the person by whom left in pledge, or from whom the article was purchased.

Section 5. No person licensed as aforesaid shall take or receive any bond or pledge for money loaned, or shall take or receive or purchase within the line of his business as a pawnbroker, any property, bonds, notes, securities, articles or thing whatsoever, from any minor or person appearing to be intoxicated, a person known to be a notorious thief, or a person known to have been convicted of larceny or burglary.

Section 6. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars or more than fifty, ($50.00) dollars, and shall, at the discretion of the mayor, have his license revoked.

Section 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

15TH YEAR. NO. 272.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1900.

TWO MEN WERE BADLY USED UP

In Street Fights Near the Bridge Approach Late Saturday Night.

STRUCK WITH COUPLING PIN

One Man Was Kicked and Beaten While His Girl Screamed For Help.

ANOTHER MAN KNOCKED DOWN.

Fights were numerous Saturday night in the vicinity of the bridge and two people were badly used up.

Tollkeeper Owen was busy at the bridge between 9 and 10 o'clock when he noticed a fellow and a girl coming up the railroad track. When they reached a spot almost directly under the bridge two men appeared and one of them hit the girl's escort with a coupling pin. He went down and then they kicked him. The girl began to scream and then Owen endeavored to telephone to the fire station for the patrol, but his telephone had not been connected and he could get no farther than central. The assailants went up the track on the run and the girl managed to assist her escort to his feet and help him to a physician, where several stitches were taken in a cut on the back of his head. He was badly used up. His name is not known, although he worked for McLaughlin & Timmons and is known to his companions as "Shorty." The cause of the trouble is a mystery.

This was not the only fight Saturday night. A bricklayer employed on the Southside pottery started for his home on the Southside about 11 o'clock. He was going down College street to the bridge and had reached a point between Robinson and Cook street when he was assaulted by two men. He was knocked down and thrown out in the street and kicked after he was down. When he arrived at the bridge he presented a pitiable appearance. His face was badly bruised and cut and blood was running down his coat.

BOY HAD MONEY.

Tollkeeper Todd Refused to Change a $20 Bill and the Boy Presented One for $10.

Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock a boy, apparently 12 years of age, requested Tollkeeper Todd to change a $20 bill. Mr. Todd suspected that all was not right, and refused to make the change, and also refused a $10 bill which the boy afterward presented. He afterward came up with $1 and was allowed to pass over the bridge. In about an hour he came back and was soon followed by three men, who found him in company with three other boys and all were admiring a new revolver which the boy displayed. The men searched the boy's pockets and found two revolvers, a watch and about $17 in money. He did not appear in the least abashed while being searched.

The men kept the stuff and took the boy away with them. It is said the boy took $84 from his father.

May Make an Example.
Of late frequent complaints have been made to Mayor Davidson and Marshal Thompson of boys playing ball on the streets, often to the destruction of windows and other breakable property. They find these cases very difficult to deal with on account of their great number. Today a case is being investigated where a number of windows in the Central school building were broken by boys playing in the alley nearby. Mayor Davidson may decide to make an example of the culprits.

SPECIAL SERMONS.

GRAND JURY AT WORK.

Light Business This Session and Will Likely be Completed Wednesday.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special.)—Court convened this morning at 10 o'clock, and the grand jury at once got down to work, Charles McGregor, of Wells-ville, being appointed foreman. The work before the grand jury this term is light, and they expect to complete it by Wednesday.

Dog Hung Himself.

A dog owned by William Deacon, of Eighth street, hung himself yesterday. The dog was tied to a post in the rear of the lot near his fence. He jumped the fence, but the chain was too short to allow him to touch the ground and he was strangled.

Only One Arrest.

The only case in police court this morning was that of Jack Sharp, who was arrested by Officer Davidson yesterday. He was drunk and disorderly. The patrol wagon was not called out, something very unusual after a big pay.

THE DESECRATION HAS BEEN STOPPED

Engineer George Found Sand Men Had Encroached All Along the Line

FOR FROM 14 TO 35 FEET

Mayor Davidson's Orders That Hauling Shall Be Stopped At Once Are Obeyed.

THE CITY ORDINANCE QUOTED.

The gravel hauling from the old cemetery has been stopped, and while no injunction has been taken out, yet it is probable a general injunction will be secured from the court of common pleas to prevent any person from taking away gravel or sand from the cemetery in the future.

The survey of Engineer George showed that there was not a place where the cemetery territory had not been encroached upon and it ranged in width from 14 to 35 feet. When the engineer finished his survey it was given to the mayor and he went to the office of the solicitor, and together they went to the old cemetery and ordered the people to stop hauling gravel. The order was obeyed at once.

Chairman Peach stated that Cemetery Trustee Dickey visited the old cemetery and on investigation found four or five coffins exposed. Action will be taken at once and at least 40 bodies will be moved to another cemetery.

The section in the ordinance book relating to the old cemetery is as follows:

"No person or persons shall injure, damage or defoul any building, bridge, culvert, railing, fence, tree box, lamp post, shrubbery, gravestone, tombstone, monument or any other property of value within the limits of the city of East Liverpool."

No penalty is attached to the above section, but there is a section that provides for any violation of laws where penalty is not mentioned. The fine shall not exceed $10 and costs of prosecution.

Died Yesterday.

A 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Derringer, of Helana, died yesterday morning. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Greene officiating. Interment will be made in the Long Run cemetery.

They Got Permission.

This morning the agent for the Adams Express company received permission from Humane Agent Miller to work one of their horses in the wagon. The agent examined the horse and found that it was fit to be worked.

Three Weeks.

The assessors in the city will not be able to complete their work before three weeks. The new rule makes it much harder for them and will add at least a week to their work.

Dedication Services.

The Salem Elks will dedicate their new lodge building next Thursday evening. A number of local Elks will attend the celebration.

Deal Practically Closed.

Charles E. Macrum has returned from Lisbon and states that he found numerous sites for the glass house which he proposes to erect in that village for a $5,000 bonus and a free site. He says the deal is practically closed and his company will spend about $25,000 erecting the plant.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

COMMISSION TO MEET TOMORROW NIGHT.

To Look Over the Plans for the Building as Submitted by the Architects.

The Carnegie library commission will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of looking over plans for the new library.

Tomorrow is the last day for the architects to hand in plans, and any person who wants the job or a chance at it will have to send in their sketches by tomorrow evening. It is not known how many architects have entered the competition, but the commission will have plenty of plans to select from when they meet.

Mr. Peach, in speaking of the matter this afternoon, stated that the commission would select the plans without regard to the architect, and the best plans would be chosen.

Taken to Imperial.

The remains of Joseph Chambers were taken to Imperial this morning for interment. The funeral services were conducted at his late home on Avondale street yesterday afternoon by Dr. Clark Crawford.

Fixed It Up.

The young business man who was arrested Saturday for embezzlement succeeded in getting somebody to come to his relief late in the evening, and is once more a free man.

Open in the Morning.

The new telephone company will open their new exchange in this city tomorrow morning with 250 phones. The other phones will be put in operation as soon as possible.

NO TROUBLE AT TRENTON

Manufacturers Will Pay Either Scale to Keep Potteries Running.

And Consider the Filling of Orders of More Importance Than Either Scale.

NO DANGER OF STRIKE NOW.

Trenton, N. J., April 30.—(Special.)

—The fact that the Trenton pottery manufacturers are enjoying unusual prosperity will probably prevent any trouble tomorrow over the refusal of some of the operatives to accept the new wage scale. Their one consideration is to keep the shops running, and they are generally willing to pay either the present or the new scale of wages.

The manufacturers' committee will probably convene and arrange the matter should the men refuse to work, and it is believed here that present wage rates will be continued in operation. THOS. C. HILL.

Bought the Printing Outfit.

Proprietor Cutshall, of the Waterford Magnet, was in the city today and purchased the city printing outfit which was found in the stable of the Bradshaw property. The price paid for the outfit is not known, but Peach says he got all it was worth.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 272.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1900.

TWO CENTS

TWO MEN WERE BADLY USED UP

Approach Late Saturday
Night.

STRUCK WITH COUPLING PIN

One Man Was Kicked and Beaten
While His Girl Screamed
For Help.

ANOTHER MAN KNOCKED DOWN.

Fights were numerous Saturday night in the vicinity of the bridge and two people were badly used up.

Tollkeeper Owen was busy at the bridge between 9 and 10 o'clock when he noticed a fellow and a girl coming up the railroad track. When they reached a spot almost directly under the bridge two men appeared and one of them hit the girl's escort with a coupling pin. He went down and then they kicked him. The girl began to scream and then Owen endeavored to telephone to the fire station for the patrol, but his telephone had not been connected and he could get no farther than central. The assailants went up the track on the run and the girl managed to assist her escort to his feet and help him to a physician, where several stitches were taken in a cut on the back of his head. He was badly used up. His name is not known, although he worked for McLaughlin & Timmons and is known to his companions as "Shorty." The cause of the trouble is a mystery.

This was not the only fight Saturday night. A bricklayer employed on the Southside pottery started for his home on the Southside about 11 o'clock. He was going down College street to the bridge and had reached a point between Robinson and Cook street when he was assaulted by two men. Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in the Ferguson & Hill hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Prohibitionists have 14 delegates to the state convention to select and will also reorganize the county executive committee by nominating a chairman. A vote will be taken as to the choice of the presidential candidates, and it is expected the convention will be solid for Woolley and Swallow as candidates for president and vice president, respectively. The state convention meets at Columbus May 24 and 25.

Another important move that will be made will be that of organizing a local Prohibition league or club.

New Checking System.

A new checking system has been inaugurated at the freight depot and the chances for a package of ware being lost are less than ever before. The siding at the outbound platform hold 14 cars, and every morning a tin box is filled with cards, upon which is printed the number of the car. When a roller places a cask in a car he takes a card out of the box and gives it to the checkman. In this manner a complete record of a cask is kept until it leaves the station.

HEIR TO $16,000.

WILLIAM GEORGE BEVAN, EAST END YARDMAN,

Gets News of His Father's Death in England a Comfortable Legacy.

Within the past week William George Bevan, a yardman employed at the flint mill of the Potters' Mining and Milling company, received word that his father had died in England seven weeks ago, and that a fortune amounting to $16,000 had been left to him. Mr. Bevan was seen Saturday evening and said: "Yes, the report that I have fallen heir to that amount of money is so, but I do not expect to go to the old country to claim it. I am the only heir and am now making arrangements to have all of my father's property sold and expect to receive the amount in June." Mr. Bevan has been employed at the flint mill for over a year and is one of the best known men in the suburb. He has been working for $1.50 a day and will quit laboring when he receives the money.

AT Y. M. C. A. HALL.

The Evangelistic Meetings of Sunday Were Rich in Interest.

There was a very nice audience present on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The song service was one of unusual interest. Ed. H. MacIntosh rendered two selections, and a quartet, composed of the Misses Maple, Messrs. Cartwright and Campbell, added much to the delight of the occasion.

The evangelist talked along the line of mission and slum work and related several incidents showing the wonderful power of human instrumentality, backed by the blessing of God. Rev. J. C. Taggart was present at the afternoon service and led in an earnest and fervent prayer, pleading that God might raise up human instrumentalities which shall overturn and root out the vice, drunkenness and immorality which so strongly controls in East Liverpool.

Song service was much enjoyed in the evening, Mr. Cartwright rendering a solo and the choir singing a number of appropriate gospel songs. Evangelist MacGregor is a great lover of song, asserting that such service, in his estimation, will hold sway in the sweet bye and bye, in the "city not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The sermon last night was intensely interesting to any one who believes in practical, experimental religion on this earth. It will do you good to hear the doctrine taught if you are heart hungry for pure life here and happiness in eternity.

Praise service at 7:30 tonight. Regular service commences at 8 o'clock. You have a pressing invitation to be present. The evangelist's religion is eager for the presence of those who are lost in sin and who are eager to step out of the darkness into the marvelous light and liberty of the gospel of the Son of God.

Congressman Tayler's Old Desk.

The desk in the office of Justice Daniel McLane is the first desk used by Hon. Robert W. Tayler after he was admitted to the bar. Mr. Tayler's office was then in the Surles building on Fourth street. When he was in the city several weeks ago he called at the office of Mr. McLane and was surprised to find the old piece of office furniture still in use.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

Albert Hetzell, of Mulberry street, was compelled to go to the home of his parents in Butler, Pa., Saturday on account of being ill with grip.

Daniel McKinnon, jr., of Elm street, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. Laughlin, of Pennsylvania avenue, near Columbiana park, is very ill with pneumonia.

Cyrus Caldwell has sold his residence on High street to Mr. Boso; consideration $650.

Within the past few weeks a number of lots in the orchard have been sold, and only four lots in that addition remain unsold. These will likely be disposed of this week.

A child of William Orin is threatened with fever.

Persons who have occasion to drive over the road between here and Smith's Ferry complain about the many stones that are in the roadway. Joseph McKinnon has taken a number of stones from the road, but still the road is very rough.

A washout in the river bank opposite Needham street is being filled in.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Derlinger, of Helana, is very ill.

Mrs. Blanche House, of Railroad street, who has been spending several days at Scio visiting friends, has returned home.

Albert Heckathorne, of Elm street, has stored his goods and with his family has gone to South Beaver township, where they will remain for several months.

Motorman Albert Dietz has moved his family from the city to a house on St. George street.

The session of the Second United Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting this week. Only routine business is to be transacted.

Mrs. Archie Searight returned to the city Saturday evening after visiting friends in Cleveland for several days.

The regular quarterly conference was held in the Second M. E. church Saturday evening.

The motormen held their regular monthly meeting in Chambers hall on Mulberry street Saturday night. Routine business was transacted.

Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in the Ferguson & Hill hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Prohibitionists have 14 delegates to the state convention to select and will also reorganize the county executive committee by nominating a chairman. A vote will be taken as to the choice of the presidential candidates, and it is expected the convention will be solid for Woolley and Swallow as candidates for president and vice president, respectively. The state convention meets at Columbus May 24 and 25.

Another important move that will be made will be that of organizing a local Prohibition league or club.

New Checking System.

A new checking system has been inaugurated at the freight depot and the chances for a package of ware being lost are less than ever before. The siding at the outboard platform hold 14 cars, and every morning a tin box is filled with cards, upon which is printed the number of the car. When a roller places a cask in a car he takes a card out of the box and gives it to the checkman. In this manner a complete record of a cask is kept until it leaves the station.

We have been receiving this week the finest line of men's and boys' soft Madras and silk dress shirts in the city. You want to see these.

SOUTH SIDE.

The majority of Southside citizens are of the opinion that there should be at least one officer of the law in this part of the district. Drunkenness and rowdyism are of common occurrence, especially on Sundays.

The Rock Spring grounds are being cleaned up and put in shape for the coming season.

Misses Della Mercer and Mamie Fowler are the guests of their uncle, T. R. Cunningham.

Miss Anna Stockenburger, who was in Chester a few days last week, has gone to Steubenville to assist in the Free Methodist work there.

Walter Banfield returned to his home at Beaver Saturday after a visit with his cousin, Richard Banfield, jr.

Mrs. Tamar Kirk, who is nearly 91 years of age, had her picture taken for the first time last Saturday.

Jesse Allison returned home from Mt. Clemens, Mich., Saturday. His health is somewhat improved and he will return in about a month for another course of treatment.

It is expected that passenger trains will be run over the Panhandle into Chester when the next schedule goes into effect, which will probably be about May 10.

A. E. McDonald, of Congo, candidate for sheriff, was in Chester Saturday.

Saturday was pay day for the laborers on the pottery.

Robert Hobbs will soon commence the erection of a building on his lot near the blacksmith shop.

Miss Daisy Bambrick, of New Cumberland, was the guest of her brother, Tom Bambrick, Saturday.

Howard Piper and family are now residents of the Southside, having moved recently from Vandergrift, Pa. Mr. Piper is a machinist at the rolling mill.

Work was resumed today on the bridge for the electric road after a delay on account of lack of stone.

J. R. Little, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., was in Chester Saturday on business.

Richard Banfield is making quite a number of extensive improvements on his property on Virginia avenue.

COUNTY NEWS.

Happenings of More Than Local Interest Around Columbiana County and Vicinity.

Fisher Brothers, of New Waterford, have sold their Negley creamery.

The new school building at New Waterford was formally dedicated last week. Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college, delivered the address.

HEIR TO $16,000.

WILLIAM GEORGE BEVAN, EAST END YARDMAN,

Gets News of His Father's Death in England a Comfortable Legacy.

Within the past week William George Bevan, a yardman employed at the flint mill of the Potters' Mining and Milling company, received word that his father had died in England seven weeks ago, and that a fortune amounting to $16,000 had been left to him. Mr. Bevan was seen Saturday evening and said: "Yes, the report that I have fallen heir to that amount of money is so, but I do not expect to go to the old country to claim it. I am the only heir and am now making arrangements to have all of my father's property sold and expect to receive the amount in June." Mr. Bevan has been employed at the flint mill for over a year and is one of the best known men in the suburb. He has been working for $1.50 a day and will quit laboring when he receives the money.

AT Y. M. C. A. HALL.

The Evangelistic Meetings of Sunday Were Rich in Interest.

There was a very nice audience present on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The song service was one of unusual interest. Ed. H. MacIntosh rendered two selections, and a quartet, composed of the Misses Maple, Messrs. Cartwright and Campbell, added much to the delight of the occasion.

The evangelist talked along the line of mission and slum work and related several incidents showing the wonderful power of human instrumentality, backed by the blessing of God. Rev. J. C. Taggart was present at the afternoon service and led in an earnest and fervent prayer, pleading that God might raise up human instrumentalities which shall overturn and root out the vice, drunkenness and immorality which so strongly controls in East Liverpool.

Song service was much enjoyed in the evening, Mr. Cartwright rendering a solo and the choir singing a number of appropriate gospel songs. Evangelist MacGregor is a great lover of song, asserting that such service, in his estimation, will hold sway in the sweet bye and bye, in the "city not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The sermon last night was intensely interesting to any one who believes in practical, experimental religion on this earth. It will do you good to hear the doctrine taught if you are heart hungry for pure life here and happiness in eternity.

Praise service at 7:30 tonight. Regular service commences at 8 o'clock. You have a pressing invitation to be present. The evangelist's religion is eager for the presence of those who are lost in sin and who are eager to step out of the darkness into the marvelous light and liberty of the gospel of the Son of God.

Congressman Tayler's Old Desk.

Thedesk in the office of Justice Daniel McLane is the first desk used by Hon. Robert W. Tayler after he was admitted to the bar. Mr. Tayler's office was then in the Surles building on Fourth street. When he was in the city several weeks ago he called at the office of Mr. McLane and was surprised to find the old piece of office furniture still in use.

CONTRACTS LET FOR NEW CHURCH

Vestry of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church Opened Bids.

COST WILL BE $14,924

Exclusive of Furnishings Which Will Run the Total Cost Up to About $16,000.

WORK WILL BEGIN AT ONCE.

The contract for the erection of the new Episcopal church was let Saturday evening. The contract for the stone work was let to George Phillips and the frame work was given to Contractor Harvey McHenry. The total cost of the building alone will be $14,924.

This price is exclusive of any furnishings and when entirely completed the church will cost probably $16,000. The vestry hope to be able to lay the corner stone within a month. Work on the foundation will begin this week.

LIVERPOOL PLAYERS.

Are Subject to Some Comment by the Sporting Writers of Two Papers.

Sporting papers last week had the following to say of East Liverpool players:

Mercer seems to have his eye on the ball, and, of course, he gets to first in pretty fast time, but he has not shown up well at third base. It is not fair to pronounce him a failure until he has had the benefit of a thorough trial, but he does not seem to be at home on third base.

"I don't think Shaw is in shape to do himself justice behind the bat. He does not look strong or hardened enough for the hard usage catchers have to stand. The fans will be glad to see what McAllister can do in that important position. This is not a 'knock' on Shaw, mind you."

THREE MEN.

Took a Buggy Ride Yesterday Morning But the Horse Left Them at a Corner.

An exciting runaway took place on Jackson street yesterday morning. Three young men were coming down the street in a buggy when the horse took a notion to run. When the corner of Second street was reached two of the young men were thrown from the buggy and the third decided it would be safer to jump and he alighted on his head in the road. The horse continued to the railroad track, turned down the track and at the first mill the buggy was left behind. The horse was captured further down the track none the worse for its journey. The young men were not injured beyond a few scratches and bruises.

The Wheel Came Off.
Yesterday Lash Welch and three companions came to the city to attend a funeral. As they were turning the corner at Franklin and Sixth street a wheel of their vehicle caught in a street car track and was torn off. Repairs were made in a short time.

He has a good voice and splendid delivery and will undoubtedly become one of the brightest ministers in the Presbyterian church.

KNOCKED DOWN.

Horse Frightened at the Locomobile and a Woman Came Near Being Injured.

Saturday evening a horse driven by Will Douglass frightened at the locomobile and started to run. A lady who was standing at the corner of Sixth and Franklin street waiting for a car was struck and knocked down. She was thrown clear around a telephone pole, but luckily was not hurt. The driver as soon as he could get his horse stopped went back and investigated.

How to Dry Rubber Boots.

It was a problem how to dry out hip rubber boots. In the sitting room there was an open grate fire which was covered every night with fine coal and a few shovelfuls of ashes, so that the room never became quite cold. We found that if we heated a piece of old flannel as hot as possible and stuffed it down into the foot of a boot and stood the boot in front of the fireplace it was as dry as a bone next morning. The handiest thing to keep the boot leg open is a spring steel corset rib about 18 inches long by three-quarter inch in width.—Forest and Stream.

How to Dry Rubber Boots.

It was a problem how to dry out hip rubber boots. In the sitting room there was an open grate fire which was covered every night with fine coal and a few shovelfuls of ashes, so that the room never became quite cold. We found that if we heated a piece of old flannel as hot as possible and stuffed it down into the foot of a boot and stood the boot in front of the fireplace it was as dry as a bone next morning. The handiest thing to keep the boot leg open is a spring steel corset rib about 18 inches long by three-quarter inch in width.—Forest and Stream.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1900.

This Date In History—April 30.

- 1524—Chevalier Bayard, last of the knights errant, died in Italy; born 1475. Bayard came honestly by his martial disposition, three of his immediate ancestors having been killed in battle and his father many times wounded in the wars of his king. He entered the service at 18 and in his first battle captured a stand of colors. He died in battle, and when he fell the cause was lost.
- 1623—Francis Xavier de Laval, Montmorenci, first Canadian Roman Catholic bishop, born in Laval, France; died 1708.
- 1632—John Count de Tilly, famous Imperialist soldier in the Thirty Years' war, died.
- 1771—Hosea Ballou, founder or reorganizer of the Universalist church in America, born at Richmond, N. H.; died 1852.
- 1789—George Washington inaugurated first president at New York.
- 1864—James Montgomery, British poet, died; born 1772.
- 1896—Gustav Freytag, the popular German novelist, author of "Soll und Haben" and other notable works, died at Wiesbaden; born 1816.

The supply of Boers and kopjes in South Africa seems inexhaustible.

Potato Patch Pingree declares himself a Democrat. He is now "smaller potatoes" than ever.

That Columbus woman who is suing for divorce from her dead husband must have had a lively recollection of the departed.

GROSVENOR FIGURES.

"Old Figgers" Grosvenor prophesied 270 electoral votes for McKinley and 174 for Bryan. He gives Bryan Kentucky and Maryland and classes Delaware and Kansas as doubtful. In September, 1896, Grosvenor predicted McKinley would have 278. He had 271.

WITHIN YOUR MEANS.

If you must be a sport, be as near as possible to what the world knows as a true sport. Pay your way. Don't beat your barber, your shoe merchant, your landlord or landlady, your tailor, the furniture dealer, the telephone company, the laundryman, the doctor, the druggist, the secret societies, the livery stables, and even the poor and patient and long-suffering printer. The dead beat eventually travels a rough and stormy pathway. But he should travel a still rougher one. He should be pilloried and posted on every hand. When he lies like a cur to you, and you know that he has premeditatedly beat you, tell your friends and neighbors the plain, truthful and unvarnished story, thus making it impossible for the fellow to beat them. When a human being becomes a beat, and makes boast that the world owes him a living, and he is going to have that living, no matter who suffers, every decent young man and respectable young woman should give him the cold shoulder and utterly ostracize and bar him from society, until he becomes converted from the error of his way and is willing to toil and earn his living. Mark the beat. Spot the beat. Beat him out of the city. We have several of him in this neck of woods. We know whereof we speak. We have been victimized to the queen's taste. We have had all we want of such vermin. Charity is a noble and God-like trait; but charity does not avail with such miserable creatures. Make them pay their way.

THE ARMY CANTEEN.

Chaplain Pierce is quoted as asserting that the army canteen is a blessing and a comfort in the Philippines. If Chaplain Pierce is honest in his assertion and thought, he is the most egregiously mistaken man on the island of Luzon. If he is dishonest, he is simply a tool in the pay of the liquor traffic. The army canteen in the Philippines is an unmitigated, blasting curse to the soldiers of Uncle Sam. Experience in that hot climate teaches that the use of intoxicants is much more harmful to the human system than their use in this climate, and the volunteers were solemnly warned of this fact by the army surgeons before landing, and the after experience of the men demonstrated this to be the case. Any man of common sense knows that the constant use of alcoholic beverages will create an appetite for more alcohol, and the soldier, like the civilian, given an opportunity for the spending of his money at the canteen, will branch out and overflow into the accursed saloons existing in Manila and become unfit for service, an imposition on sober soldiers, men who have to do duty for the drunkard. Uncle Sam, with his accursed canteen, makes drunkards and then punishes them for drunkenness. History demonstrates the fact that sober soldiers, total abstainers, are head and shoulders above tipplers in every line of duty—guard and sentry duty, on the march, in the camp and on the battle field. The drunkard and tippler is a fraud in civil life and in business life; he's a failure as a workman and a failure as an employer; and the same rule holds good in military life, in time of peace or in time of war, and Chaplain Pierce is either a fool or a scoundrel when he advocates the maintenance of the army canteen. Kill the accursed thing, President McKinley, if it lies in your power, and give us a chance to overthrow the demon of alcohol, in the shape of the licensed liquor traffic, which is gnawing at the vitals of the prosperity of this great republic. Kill it, in the name of God and humanity, and thousands of men, women and children all over this land will rise up and call down blessings upon your head. "For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

THE LAWBREAKER.

He's bold and defiant, by day and by night,
In sneering at law he takes huge delight;
He says, with a grin, "I'm a law to myself,
So, just hang your statutes up on the shelf.
I've got a pull—yes, a pull of my own
With the fellow who sits just back of the throne;
And if you interfere I'll put you to rout,
And teach you that I am the boss knocker out."
Just let this great bluffer, of blowhardy function,
Go up, good and strong, against an injunction,
And he'll whine, like a cur, and beg hard for pity,
And swear he'll obey all the laws of the city.

Corry (Pa.) Leader.
Ed. Hubbard, who has sold his meat market on South Center street, will leave Sunday for East Liverpool, O., where he has, in partnership with Joseph Cogswell, also of this city, purchased the Bon Ton meat market, on Sixth street, which the new firm will take possession of on May 1. Mr. Hubbard will undoubtedly have excellent success in his new venture. He has had 30 years' experience in the business and his market has always been a model of neatness and cleanliness. Mr. Cogswell is also thoroughly experienced in the business and together these two gentlemen will make a strong team. We are sorry to lose them, but hope they will thrive in their new location.

Realty Transfers.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special)—The following transfers have been recorded:

Salem Land company to Henry Moss, lot 24 in their first addition, $250; Rachael Hamilton to Charity A. Burnett, lot 44 Wellsville, $2,750; R. P. Hayes to Sarah J. Hayes, 47 1-2 acres in Butler township, $995.

Had His Name Changed.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special)—Cary David Wolf, of Knox township, was in probate court Saturday, and had his name changed to Cary David Heestand. He was brought up by the Heestand family, and is generally known by that name. He was married recently, and desired to legalize the name.

Counterfeit Dollar.

A clever counterfeit silver dollar is in circulation throughout this section, and business men are warned to be on the lookout for it. The coin is of the date of 1891 and so perfect is the imitation that it can hardly be detected from the genuine.

Real Estate Deals.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Frank Dickey was in Lisbon Saturday on business.

—Evert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, is quite ill with typhoid fever.

—Joseph Miller will leave this evening for Matamoras, where he will visit friends for several weeks.

—Mrs. J. T. Smith will be brought home today from Passavant hospital, Pittsburg, to the home of her brother in the East End.

—W. N. Fleming, of Steubenville, is in the city visiting friends. Mr. Fleming was formerly a resident of this place and is at present employed in the Steubenville pottery.

Anecdotes of Colonel Ege.

Colonel Ege was a famous character in the early days. Although living in Doniphan county, he was often in Atchison, followed by a pack of hounds. He was a high toned southern gentleman, with a kind heart.

One day while returning home from this city he came across a man whose wagon was stuck in the mud in Independence creek bottom. Colonel Ege at once started in to help the man pry out his wagon with a fence rail. While both were working away Ege became angry and yelled to the man, "Lift, you son of a gun; you are not lifting a pound." The man picked up the end gate of the wagon and split it over Ege's head, laying him up for three weeks. Ege had his hat off when he was struck and was so bald before coming to Kansas that he was known as the Bald Eagle of Maryland.

Ege always carried a pistol and was always trying to shoot through somebody's hat without hitting him. One day, at the Independence creek ferry, he shot at a man, but aimed a little low and creased him. But Ege was always a gentleman; he took the man into his home and tenderly cared for him until he recovered.—Atchison Globe.

A Philadelphia Slander.

Bilger—You remember Tompkins? Yes? I saw him down at Philadelphia the other day. I was in the car, he on the depot platform. I stuck my arm out of the window to shake hands with him, and do you know before I could get hold of his hand—

Jigger—The train started, eh?
"No, my arm went to sleep!"—Types.

The New Cook.

"Maggie, did you make that chicken broth as I ordered you?"
"O! did, mom."

"What did you do with it?"
"Sure, an' that ilse would O! do wid it but fade it to the chickens, mom?"—Boston Courier.

The Western Union Telegraph company have begun to string an additional wire from Cleveland to Rochester. A connection with the new line will be made with the local office.

A 600 light transformer was erected in Dewey lane by the light company Saturday afternoon.

Anecdotes of Colonel Ege.

Colonel Ege was a famous character in the early days. Although living in Doniphan county, he was often in Atchison, followed by a pack of hounds.
He was a high toned southern gentleman, with a kind heart.

One day while returning home from this city he came across a man whose wagon was stuck in the mud in Independence creek bottom. Colonel Ege at once started in to help the man pry out his wagon with a fence rail.
While both were working away Ege became angry and yelled to the man.
"Lift, you son of a gun; you are not lifting a pound." The man picked up the end gate of the wagon and split it over Ege's head, laying him up for three weeks. Ege had his hat off when he was struck and was so bald before coming to Kansas that he was known as the Bald Eagle of Maryland.

Ege always carried a pistol and was always trying to shoot through somebody's hat without hitting him. One day, at the Independence creek ferry, he shot at a man, but aimed a little low and creased him. But Ege was always a gentleman; he took the man into his home and tenderly cared for him until he recovered.—Atchison

A Philadelphia Slander.

Bilger—You remember Tompkins?
Yes? I saw him down at Philadelphia the other day. I was in the car, he on the depot platform. I stuck my arm out of the window to shake hands with him, and do you know before I could get hold of his hand—

Jigger—The train started, eh?
"No, my arm went to sleep"—Types.

The New Cook.

"Maggie, did you make that chicken broth as I ordered you?"

"Oi did, mom."

"What did you do with it?"

"Sure, an fbat ilse would Oi do wid it but fade it to the chickens, mom?"—

A DOG CASE.

John Hum Says He Never Owned a
Tax.

Lisbon, April 30.—(Special.)—Constable Morrison of this place, levied upon the fish cart used by John Hum, of Lisbon, upon a judgment rendered against him for dog tax. The cart was at once replevined from the constable by Mrs. Hum, who is the owner of the property. Mr. Hum refused to pay the tax because he never owned or harbored a dog and the tax was wrongfully charged against him. A summons was left at his house while he and his wife were away from home and judgment taken against him without his knowledge, as he never knew that a suit had been brought against him until after judgment had been taken. When Hum learned of the judgment he went to the officers and explained the circumstances and asked them to try the case, but this they refused to do and insisted that he pay the judgment and costs whether it was right or wrong.

M. E. WOMEN TO KNOCK

Will Again Ask Admission as Delegates.

WARM DEBATE IS PREDICTED.

Question of Seating the Provisional Delegates to Be Considered at the General Conference, in Chicago Laymen Expected to Have Required Two-Thirds.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Rev. David S. Monroe, secretary of the Methodist general conference, which meets in Chicago Wednesday, declared to-day that the question of the seating of the provisional delegates will bring on the first discussion after the conference convenes, and will probably be referred to a special committee. It will require only 189 votes from the 565 regular delegates to rule out the provisional reports, but it is thought the laymen will get more than the required two-thirds vote of the conference.

The proposed admission of women delegates also is expected to cause a warm debate. In 1888 the general conference established a precedent when the bishop decided that women delegates should not be seated, and their names were not called. In 1896, Secretary Monroe called the names of three women who were present as delegates, but they remained without their title being disputed for one day only. During that time they voted for Dr. Monroe as secretary, but at the following session they withdrew from the conference.

At a mass meeting to be held in the interest of city evangelization on Wednesday evening, May 16, at the Auditorium hall, John E. Ames, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preside, and the speakers will be Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, and Bishop Henry W. Warren, D. D., of Denver. The speakers for the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education society, to be held Thursday, May 17, in Studebaker hall, are Rev. W. H. W. Rees, D. D., Cincinnati; Rev. S. P. Cadman, D. D., New York; Rev. M. C. B. Mason, D. D., Cincinnati, and Bishop J. C. Hartzell, D. D.

The speakers on the occasion of the anniversary of the board of education, to be held in Studebaker hall Wednesday evening, May 23, are Bishop D. A. Goodsell, D. D., and Rev. J. W. Bashford, president of the Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O. D. L. Rader, of Denver, has been added to the list of speakers for the anniversary of the Missionary society, to be held in Auditorium hall, Tuesday evening, May 8.

BISHOP HARTZELL PRAISES ENGLAND.

Said Boers Will Be Better Off Under Her Rule—Gift For Mission Purposes.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Bishop Hartzell, the missionary bishop to Africa of the Methodist Episcopal church in this country, preached Sunday morning at St. Paul's M. E. church. He arrived in New York Saturday, having just returned from a tour.

Speaking of the situation in South

strong, just government to bear in regions which never knew the law before.

Bishop Hartzell was also greatly pleased with the extension of the railways. Some man whom the bishop described as "one of the greatest men of the times," had shown him the plans for next year's extensions, to be constructed on the profits of this year. The bishop told the gentleman that he would pray for him. The bishop did not say that the man referred to was Cecil Rhodes, but those who listened to his remarks seemed to think that Rhodes was the man meant.

He said the railroads would enable

Africa, Bishop Hartzell expressed satisfaction over the success of the three great powers—England, France and Germany—in parcelling out the dark continent without wars resulting from the nations of Europe. He said in part:

"and—God bless her—the friend of missions everywhere, with Germany and France, and some of the smaller powers, is bringing the influence of the missionaries to carry the gospel to millions of black men.

Speaking of the South African war, he said:

"Don't be alarmed by that war. It is simply one of the incidents in the history of the continent. The Boers, as a people, are not fighting the British. Only a small fringe at the north is disaffected. Premier Schreiner takes pride in his loyalty to the queen. Out of that war will come unity. I see it clearly—unity based upon grounds of mutual respect. The Boers in Cape Colony are far better off than those of the north, and those who are now fighting will be far better off when they are living under a truly republican form of government, which they do not have now."

It was announced that Bishop Hartzell had received extensive concessions from the British authorities in South Africa. He said he believed that he had been awarded the most extensive grant of land for missionary purposes ever made. He now wishes to secure $20,000 or $25,000 a year to carry on the work.

PREDICTS BRYAN'S ELECTION

William L. Wilson Said the Party Would Go Into the Fight Solid—Comments On Dewey's Candidacy.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 30.—William L. Wilson, author of the Wilson tariff bill, while in this city en route from Hot Springs to Nebraska City, Neb., where he is to be the guest of J. Sterling Morton, his associate in Cleveland's cabinet, said:

"It is to be McKinley and Bryan. Mr. Cleveland will not allow his name to be mentioned, and Dewey will not get an opportunity to see him voted down."

"Bryan will be nominated, but conditions are so changed that the campaign will be on new lines. Both sides have so many new conditions to confront that the old tactics will not do. I think the Democrats will win. We shall go into the fight solid."

Mr. Wilson gave expression to his views regarding the candidacy of Admiral Dewey. "He is innocent of the game of politics," he said, "and has blundered in his bluntness as blunt people often do. He will blunder out of it again as suddenly as he came in. Dewey does things suddenly. He generally anticipates and when the row is at its height he will surprise everybody by sailing away, or I am mistaken in the man."

PINGREE A DEMOCRAT.

Said He Believed the Hope of the People Was In That Party.

DETROIT, April 30.—Governor Pingree asserted in an interview that the hope of the people in this year's general election is in the Democratic party. The governor has always hitherto been an independent Republican. Speaking of the increasing power of trusts, governor Pingree said:

"There is no use in hoping that the Republican party will do anything with them."

"Are you prepared to announce your withdrawal from the Republican party?" the Governor was asked.

"There is no announcement about it. I only say what I have said all the while. You haven't heard me say anything against the Democrats for sometime. I believe that the hope of the people is in the Democratic party this fall."

BARKER CLAIMS HOPEFULNESS.

Thinks Populists Have Fighting Chance to Win Presidency.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Wharton Barker, of this city, who has received the endorsement of some of the Populist state conventions for the nomination for president at the Cincinnati convention, was asked as to the effect of his nomination for the presidency by the Populists on Mr. Bryan's candidacy. Mr. Barker said: "There can no longer be a doubt in the mind of any one who considers the situation that at least 1,500,000 of the 2,000,000 Populist votes cast for Mr. Bryan in 1896 will this year be lost to him and cast for the presidential candidate of the People's party. That the Democratic leaders know this fact is made clear by the course of Hill, Patterson, Gorman and their associates."

"The Democrats will probably give the nomination to some one else, and thus invite the Gold Democrats back into the fold."

Mr. Barker said the president would be renominated.

Mr. Barker says he thinks the Populists have a fighting chance to win the presidential fight.

MAY DELAY ROBERTS.

AN URGENT NEED OF HORSES.

Returning of French's Army to Bloemfontein Indication That Pursuit of Boers Is Ended For Time Being—London People Disheartened.

LONDON, April 30.—The Standard's announcement that General French's cavalry is returning to Bloemfontein is clear proof that there is no further hope of catching the retreating Boers, and the London papers are beginning to display impatience at the practical failure of the elaborate operations of last week.

The Standard says: "It is disheartening to find that these elaborate manoeuvres have had so small a result."

The Daily Chronicle remarks: "We are reluctant to criticise Lord Roberts, but it is impossible to shut our eyes to the fact that during the last ten days we have gained very little from our enormous display of force."

Without doubt these operations have been of a very exhausting nature, and will entail further delay. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Times, writing on March 3, after the Paardeberg affair, describes Lord Roberts' army as a "wreck," because it was without horses and without transport. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Post speaks now of the urgent need at present and always of more horses.

There is very little news from other quarters.

CANADIANS' BRAVE WORK.

Led Fight In Driving Boers From a Kopje—The Gallant Otter Wounded.

LONDON, April 30.—A special dispatch from Thaba N'Chu, dated Thursday, describing the fight at Israel's Poort,

LIEUTENANT COLONEL WILLIAM D. OTTER.

which is about seven miles west of Thaba N'Chu, says:

"Three hundred Boers were strongly entrenched on two kopjes. The place of honor was given to the Canadians who advanced very cleverly under their dashing commander, Colonel Otter. The Boers reserved their fire until the Canadians had reached the wire entanglements. Then they opened with a terrific hail of bullets."

"The Canadians, however, had taken good cover, and were not greatly damaged. They were ably supported in the assault by the Grahamstown horse. Successive rushes brought them right up to the kopjes, when Colonel Otter was struck twice, one bullet inflicting a nasty but not dangerous wound in the neck and the other tearing the bandages from his shoulder. But he still cheered his men on until the kopjes were carried. The Boers bolted. The British losses were 20 in killed and wounded."

BOER DELEGATES COMING.

Will Sail for the United States Next Thursday.

THE HAGUE, April 30.—The members of the Boer peace commission will sail from Rotterdam to the United States next Thursday evening by the Holland-American line steamship Maasdam.

Dr. Leyds and Dr. Mueller will not accompany the delegates.

The delegates will visit Amsterdam today.

MAY NEED VIGOROUS METHODS.

Trick of Some of the Boers to Get in the Rear of the British.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 30.—It is understood that the British will continue to hold Thaba N'Chu, owing to its strategic importance, and especially with a view of checking future raids. The commandos that had recently been operating in the direction of Thaba N'Chu are melting away, the Boers quietly returning to their farms, and many of them taking the oath of allegiance.

Experience has shown in many cases, however, that this is only a pretense to enable the Boers to create disturbances in the rear of the British, and vigorous methods will probably be necessary to force real disarmament.

Interesting Developments Ahead.

THABA N'CHU, April 30.—The adjacent country is now clear, the Boers having retired toward Ladybrand. There are interesting developments ahead.

Olivier Reported Wounded.

ALIWA, April 30.—It is reported here that Commandant Olivier is wounded.

NINE KILLED, 40 HURT.

A Bridge Fell Into a Crowd That Was In Attendance at the Paris Exposition.

PARIS, April 30.—When the crowds were in great numbers in the exhibition grounds and merriment was at its height a foot bridge leading to the Celestial Globe annex broke and the ruin was precipitated upon a crowded avenue below. Nine persons were killed and 40 wounded.

TO PROHIBIT LIQUOR SELLING.

Pressure on McKinley to Prevent Traffic In Our Possessions.

NEW YORK, April 30.—At a supplementary meeting of the Ecumenical conference, Sunday, the subject of "The Liquor and Opium Traffic" was discussed. The baleful effects of liquor and opium on the natives of every country where missionaries are working were explained in detail. It was announced that strong pressure has been brought to bear on President McKinley and some of his predecessors to prohibit its sale in lands over which this country exercises control—notably the Alaskan territory, Hawaii and the Philippines.

At Carnegie Hall, during the afternoon, there was held a mass meeting under the auspices of the West Side branch of the Y. M. C. A. Women were obliged to find seats in the balcony.

Rev. Dr. John G. Paton, of the New Hebrides, was the principal speaker, though many others participated in the exercises.

METHODIST ARMY 100,000 STRONG.

Bishop Thoburn Plans to Start Movement at Chicago For Salvation of Souls.

CHICAGO, April 30.—A Methodist army, 100,000 strong, consecrated and banded together for the salvation of souls, may be the outcome of the great gathering of Methodism which is about to be held in this city.

Bishop J. H. Thoburn, whose field of work is in India, and who has been a missionary and a leader of missionaries nearly all his life, is the man who will propose to the general conference this great crusade, and whose eloquence will urge that it be at once begun.

He will arrive in this city Wednesday, and it is understood that he will at once begin to gather around him supporters for the effort to convince the conference that the "consecrated army of one hundred thousand" has the field ripe before it.

Tried to Murder His Wife.

NEWARK, N. J., April 30.—Edward Norley, 40 years old, went to the home of C. W. Stuart, where his wife is employed as a domestic, and attempted to kill her. Thinking she would die, he went into the rear yard and cut his throat. He died afterward. The woman will recover. Norley was worth $18,000 a few years ago, but lost money, and drank heavily. His wife left him two years ago. Since then he had served several terms in the workhouse and county jail.

Wife of General Wilson Dead.

HAVANA, April 30.—The wife of Major General James H. Wilson, military governor of the department of Matanzas-Santa Clara, died from the effects of burns accidentally received while driving with her daughter. While alighting from her carriage she stepped upon a match, which ignited her dress. She was terribly burned.

General Rutherford Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—General Allan Rutherford, clerk of the Maryland court of appeals, died here of consumption, aged about 60 years.

HARRY S. MARTINDALE DEAD.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Harry S. Martindale, a well-known clubman and cross-country rider, died here.

M. E. WOMEN TO KNOCK

Will Again Ask Admission as Delegates.

WARM DEBATE IS PREDICTED.

Question of Seating the Provisional Delegates to Be Considered at the General Conference, in Chicago Laymen Expected to Have Required Two-Thirds.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Rev. David S. Monroe, secretary of the Methodist general conference, which meets in Chicago Wednesday, declared to-day that the question of the seating of the provisional delegates will bring on the first discussion after the conference convenes, and will probably be referred to a special committee. It will require only 189 votes from the 565 regular delegates to rule out the provisional reports, but it is thought the laymen will get more than the required two-thirds vote of the conference.

The proposed admission of women delegates also is expected to cause a warm debate. In 1888 the general conference established a precedent when the bishop decided that women delegates should not be seated, and their names were not called. In 1896, Secretary Monroe called the names of three women who were present as delegates, but they remained without their title being disputed for one day only. During that time they voted for Dr. Monroe as secretary, but at the following session they withdrew from the conference.

At a mass meeting to be held in the interest of city evangelization on Wednesday evening, May 16, at the Auditorium hall, John E. Ames, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preside, and the speakers will be Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, and Bishop Henry W. Warren, D. D., of Denver. The speakers for the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education society, to be held Thursday, May 17, in Studebaker hall, are Rev. W. H. W. Rees, D. D., Cincinnati; Rev. S. P. Cadman, D. D., New York; Rev. M. C. B. Mason, D. D., Cincinnati, and Bishop J. C. Hartzell, D. D.

The speakers on the occasion of the anniversary of the board of education, to be held in Studebaker hall Wednesday evening, May 23, are Bishop D. A. Goodsell, D. D., and Rev. J. W. Bashford, president of the Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O. D. L. Rader, of Denver, has been added to the list of speakers for the anniversary of the Missionary society, to be held in Auditorium hall, Tuesday evening, May 8.

BISHOP HARTZELL PRAISES ENGLAND.

Said Boers Will Be Better Off Under Her Rule—Gift For Mission Purposes.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Bishop Hartzell, the missionary bishop to Africa of the Methodist Episcopal church in this country, preached Sunday morning at St. Paul's M. E. church. He arrived in New York Saturday, having just returned from a tour.

Speaking of the situation in South

strong, just government to bear in regions which never knew the law before.

Bishop Hartzell was also greatly pleased with the extension of the railways. Some man whom the bishop described as "one of the greatest men of the times," had shown him the plans for next year's extensions, to be constructed on the profits of this year. The bishop told the gentleman that he would pray for him. The bishop did not say that the man referred to was Cecil Rhodes, but those who listened to his remarks seemed to think that Rhodes was the man meant.

He said the railroads would enable

Africa, Bishop Hartzell expressed satisfaction over the success of the three great powers—England, France and Germany—in parcelling out the dark continent without wars resulting from the nations of Europe. He said in part:

"God bless her—the friend of missions everywhere, with Germany and France, and some of the smaller powers, is bringing the influence of the missionaries to carry the gospel to millions of black men."

Speaking of the South African war, he said:

"Don't be alarmed by that war. It is simply one of the incidents in the history of the continent. The Boers, as a people, are not fighting the British. Only a small fringe at the north is disaffected. Premier Schreiner takes pride in his loyalty to the queen. Out of that war will come unity. I see it clearly—a unity based upon grounds of mutual respect. The Boers in Cape Colony are far better off than those of the north, and those who are now fighting will be far better off when they are living under a truly republican form of government, which they do not have now."

It was announced that Bishop Hartzell had received extensive concessions from the British authorities in South Africa. He said he believed that he had been awarded the most extensive grant of land for missionary purposes ever made. He now wishes to secure $20,000 or $25,000 a year to carry on the work.

PREDICTS BRYAN'S ELECTION

William L. Wilson Said the Party Would Go Into the Fight Solid—Comments On Dewey's Candidacy.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 30.—William L. Wilson, author of the Wilson tariff bill, while in this city en route from Hot Springs to Nebraska City, Neb., where he is to be the guest of J. Sterling Morton, his associate in Cleveland's cabinet, said:

"It is to be McKinley and Bryan. Mr. Cleveland will not allow his name to be mentioned, and Dewey will not get an opportunity to see him voted down."

"Bryan will be nominated, but conditions are so changed that the campaign will be on new lines. Both sides have so many new conditions to confront that the old tactics will not do. I think the Democrats will win. We shall go into the fight solid."

Mr. Wilson gave expression to his views regarding the candidacy of Admiral Dewey. "He is innocent of the game of politics," he said, "and has blundered in his bluntness as blunt people often do. He will blunder out of it again as suddenly as he came in. Dewey does things suddenly. He generally anticipates and when the row is at its height he will surprise everybody by sailing away, or I am mistaken in the man."

PINGREE A DEMOCRAT.

Said He Believed the Hope of the People Was In That Party.

DETROIT, April 30.—Governor Pingree asserted in an interview that the hope of the people in this year's general election is in the Democratic party. The governor has always hitherto been an independent Republican. Speaking of the increasing power of trusts, governor Pingree said:

"There is no use in hoping that the Republican party will do anything with them."

"Are you prepared to announce your withdrawal from the Republican party?" the Governor was asked.

"There is no announcement about it. I only say what I have said all the while. You haven't heard me say anything against the Democrats for some time. I believe that the hope of the people is in the Democratic party this fall."

BARKER CLAIMS HOPEFULNESS.

Thinks Populists Have Fighting Chance to Win Presidency.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Wharton Barker, of this city, who has received the endorsement of some of the Populist state conventions for the nomination for president at the Cincinnati convention, was asked as to the effect of his nomination for the presidency by the Populists on Mr. Bryan's candidacy. Mr. Barker said: "There can no longer be a doubt in the mind of any one who considers the situation that at least 1,500,000 of the 2,000,000 Populist votes cast for Mr. Bryan in 1896 will this year be lost to him and cast for the presidential candidate of the People's party. That the Democratic leaders know this fact is made clear by the course of Hill, Patterson, Gorman and their associates."

"The Democrats will probably give the nomination to some one else, and thus invite the Gold Democrats back into the fold."

Mr. Barker said the president would be renominated.

Mr. Barker says he thinks the Populists have a fighting chance to win the presidential fight.

MAY DELAY ROBERTS.

AN URGENT NEED OF HORSES.

Returning of French's Army to Bloemfontein Indication That Pursuit of Boers Is Ended For Time Being—London People Discouraged.

LONDON, April 30.—The Standard's announcement that General French's cavalry is returning to Bloemfontein is clear proof that there is no further hope of catching the retreating Boers, and the London papers are beginning to display impatience at the practical failure of the elaborate operations of last week.

The Standard says: "It is disheartening to find that these elaborate manoeuvres have had so small a result."

The Daily Chronicle remarks: "We are reluctant to criticise Lord Roberts, but it is impossible to shut our eyes to the fact that during the last ten days we have gained very little from our enormous display of force."

Without doubt these operations have been of a very exhausting nature, and will entail further delay. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Times, writing on March 3, after the Paardeberg affair, describes Lord Roberts' army as a "wreck," because it was without horses and without transport. The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Post speaks now of the urgent need at present and always of more horses.

There is very little news from other quarters.

CANADIANS' BRAVE WORK.

Led Fight in Driving Boers From a Kopje—The Gallant Otter Wounded.

LONDON, April 30.—A special dispatch from Thaba N'Chu, dated Thursday, describing the fight at Israel's Poort,

LIEUTENANT COLONEL WILLIAM D. OTTER.

which is about seven miles west of Thaba N'Chu, says:

"Three hundred Boers were strongly entrenched on two kopjes. The place of honor was given to the Canadians who advanced very cleverly under their dashing commander, Colonel Otter. The Boers reserved their fire until the Canadians had reached the wire entanglements. Then they opened with a terrific hail of bullets."

"The Canadians, however, had taken good cover, and were not greatly damaged. They were ably supported in the assault by the Grahamstown horse. Successive rushes brought them right up to the kopjes, when Colonel Otter was struck twice, one bullet inflicting a nasty but not dangerous wound in the neck and the other tearing the bandages from his shoulder. But he still cheered his men on until the kopjes were carried. The Boers bolted. The British losses were 20 in killed and wounded."

BOER DELEGATES COMING.

Will Sail for the United States Next Thursday.

THE HAGUE, April 30.—The members of the Boer peace commission will sail from Rotterdam to the United States next Thursday evening by the Holland-American line steamship Maasdam.

Dr. Leyds and Dr. Mueller will not accompany the delegates.

The delegates will visit Amsterdam today.

MAY NEED VIGOROUS METHODS.

Trick of Some of the Boers to Get in the Rear of the British.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 30.—It is understood that the British will continue to hold Thaba N'Chu, owing to its strategic importance, and especially with a view of checking future raids. The commandos that had recently been operating in the direction of Thaba N'Chu are melting away, the Boers quietly returning to their farms, and many of them taking the oath of allegiance.

Experience has shown in many cases, however, that this is only a pretense to enable the Boers to create disturbances in the rear of the British, and vigorous methods will probably be necessary to force real disarmament.

Interesting Developments Ahead.

THABA N'CHU, April 30.—The adjacent country is now clear, the Boers having retired toward Ladybrand. There are interesting developments ahead.

Olivier Reported Wounded.

ALIWAAL, April 30.—It is reported here that Commandant Olivier is wounded.

NINE KILLED, 40 HURT.

A Bridge Fell Into a Crowd That Was In Attendance at the Paris Exposition.

PARIS, April 30.—When the crowds were in great numbers in the exhibition grounds and merriment was at its height a foot bridge leading to the Celestial Globe annex broke and the ruin was precipitated upon a crowded avenue below. Nine persons were killed and 40 wounded.

TO PROHIBIT LIQUOR SELLING.

Pressure on McKinley to Prevent Traffic In Our Possessions.

NEW YORK, April 30.—At a supplementary meeting of the Ecumenical conference, Sunday, the subject of "The Liquor and Opium Traffic" was discussed. The baleful effects of liquor and opium on the natives of every country where missionaries are working were explained in detail. It was announced that strong pressure has been brought to bear on President McKinley and some of his predecessors to prohibit its sale in lands over which this country exercises control—notably the Alaskan territory, Hawaii and the Philippines.

At Carnegie Hall, during the afternoon, there was held a mass meeting under the auspices of the West Side branch of the Y. M. C. A. Women were obliged to find seats in the balcony.

Rev. Dr. John G. Paton, of the New Hebrides, was the principal speaker, though many others participated in the exercises.

METHODIST ARMY 100,000 STRONG.

Bishop Thoburn Plans to Start Movement at Chicago For Salvation of Souls.

CHICAGO, April 30.—A Methodist army, 100,000 strong, consecrated and banded together for the salvation of souls, may be the outcome of the great gathering of Methodism which is about to be held in this city.

Bishop J. H. Thoburn, whose field of work is in India, and who has been a missionary and a leader of missionaries nearly all his life, is the man who will propose to the general conference this great crusade, and whose eloquence will urge that it be at once begun.

He will arrive in this city Wednesday, and it is understood that he will at once begin to gather around him supporters for the effort to convince the conference that the "consecrated army of one hundred thousand" has the field ripe before it.

Tried to Murder His Wife.

NEWARK, N. J., April 30.—Edward Norley, 40 years old, went to the home of C. W. Stuart, where his wife is employed as a domestic, and attempted to kill her. Thinking she would die, he went into the rear yard and cut his throat. He died afterward. The woman will recover. Norley was worth $18,000 a few years ago, but lost money, and drank heavily. His wife left him two years ago. Since then he had served several terms in the workhouse and county jail.

Wife of General Wilson Dead.

HAVANA, April 30.—The wife of Major General James H. Wilson, military governor of the department of Matanzas-Santa Clara, died from the effects of burns accidentally received while driving with her daughter. While alighting from her carriage she stepped upon a match, which ignited her dress. She was terribly burned.

General Rutherford Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—General Allan Rutherford, clerk of the Maryland court of appeals, died here of consumption, aged about 60 years.

Harry S. Martindale Dead.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Harry S. Martindale, a well-known clubman and cross-country rider, died here.

FAMINE APPALLING.

Nearly 100,000,000 Starving In India.

MR. BARROWS' STARTLING FIGURES.

A Mass Meeting Held In New York Under the Auspices of the Ecumenical Conference to Raise Money For the Sufferers—Helen Gould a Contributor.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Carnegie hall was not filled when the Indian mass meeting, under the auspices of the Ecumenical conference, was called to order. President Seth Low, of Columbia university, was the first speaker. He contrasted the population of the United States, 75,000,000, with India's 250,000,000, and said that the United States, to be as thickly populated, would have 750,000,000.

Mr. Low then introduced Rev. Dr. John H. Barrows, president of Oberlin university. Mr. Barrows described the differences in the selfishness of castes. He said that India was a continent rather than a country. A continent with nearly 300,000,000 people, one-third of which were on the verge of starvation.

Bishop Henry C. Potter said that the evident interest displayed at the meeting should focus itself. It should become operative and active.

Rev. Dr. Johnson, a missionary of Central India, said he had passed through three Indian famines. He told some pitiful and pathetic stories of the sacrifices of women—especially of women for their children.

The daughter of Rami Bey was introduced by Chairman Low. Her story was about 250 girls saved in the famine of 1897 by her mother. Others also talked.

Chairman Low announced that 20 students from the Union theological seminary would take up a collection, and added:

"The Chinese merchants of British Columbia united a few days ago to send a collection for the sufferers in the burned city of Ottawa. If the Chinese have learned the lesson of brotherhood, how much more should we exemplify it."

A list of names of prominent men was read as composing a committee to collect money for the famine sufferers. The contributions tonight amounted to $1,667. Miss Helen M. Gould, who occupied one of the boxes, pledged $200.

FORECAST OF THE SENATE.

Clark Election Case Expected to Come Up On Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—So far as can now be foreseen, the week will be given up largely to the Alaska code bill and to appropriation bills in the senate. Senator Hawley, chairman of the committee on military affairs, has given notice that he will call up the army appropriation bill on Monday, and when this bill is disposed of, it is probable that the fortifications bill will be taken up. There will be an effort to secure final disposition of the Alaskan bill, but as there is almost as much opposition to the Carter amendment as there was to the amendment suggested by Senator Hansbrough, it is impossible to say whether the effort will succeed.

Senator Chandler, on Wednesday, will ask consideration of the resolution in the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, but there will be a request for more time to read the testimony and the case probably will go over for at least for several days more.

On Thursday the senate will listen to eulogies on the late Representative Baird, of Louisiana.

PRO-BOER MEETING REFERRED.

Absence of a Quorum Prevents Action In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—In the midst of the consideration of bills of minor importance in the senate, Mr. Pettigrew called up the following and asked for its immediate consideration: "Whereas, from the hour of achieving their own independence, the people of the United States have regarded with sympathy the struggles of other people to free themselves from European domination, therefore,

"Resolved, That we watch with deep and abiding interest the heroic battle of the South African republic against cruelty and oppression, and our best hopes go out for the full success of their determined contest for liberty."

Mr. Lodge moved that it be referred to the committee on foreign relations. Without a word of debate the vote was taken, 81 senators voting in favor of reference and 11 against it. As the vote disclosed the absence of a quorum, an effort was made to secure one, but it was unsuccessful, and the senate adjourned. Party lines were not drawn in the vote to refer.

SOME STILL OPPOSE THE BILL.

Opposition to Change In the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The feature of the week in the house will be the Nicaraguan canal bill, which will be considered tomorrow and Wednesday. The elimination of the section relative to the fortification of the canal removes the objections entertained to it by the friends of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but because of that very fact the resentment of some of the Democrats has been aroused.

The bill, however, doubtless will command a very large majority when it comes to a vote. Thursday will be given up to the consideration of the "free homes" bill, and Friday to war claims.

RAILROADERS THREATEN A TIE-UP.

Arthur Says Engineers on New York Central Won't Strike.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30.—The striking employees of the New York Central have given the company until 1 o'clock this afternoon to grant their demands. If the concessions are not made by that time it is the intention of the strike leaders to extend the strike, and they predict it will be the largest in the history of railroads in the east.

CLEVELAND, April 30.—Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said that the engineers on the New York Central would not be affected by the threatened tie-up of that railroad. "The engineers have no grievance," he said, "and they cannot strike except in obedience to the laws of the organization. There will, in my opinion be no trouble."

The Rebel Paterno Captured.

MANILA, April 30.—Major General Lloyd Wheaton reports that Senor Paterno, the former president of the Filipino so-called cabinet, was captured in the mountains, near Trinidad, province of Benguet, April 25. Paterno recently, through relatives in Manila, requested and received permission to enter the American lines, but failed to appear. His relatives explained that he had been sick a long time and was an invalid. He was brought to San Fernando on a little ambulance by soldiers of the Forty-eighth regiment.

May Start For Cape Nome Today.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 30.—The formal rush to the gold fields of Cape Nome will be inaugurated today, when the steamer Jeanie, of the Pacific Steam Whaling company, the first steamer to start on the trip this year, is scheduled to sail, providing she arrives in the meantime from San Francisco.

Opened Fund For Ottawa Fire.

LONDON, April 30.—The lord mayor of London, A. J. Newton, has opened a mansion house fund for the relief of the victims of the Ottawa fire.

AN ANSWER TO TAYLOR.

Beckham's Attorney Quotes Pennsylvania and Other Decisions In Support of Goebel Democrats' Attitude.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Lewis McQuown, attorney for J. C. W. Beckham, has prepared and will file his brief today in the supreme court in the case involving the title to the governorship of Kentucky. On the motion to dismiss, for want of jurisdiction in the supreme court, it is contended that the provisions of the constitution and statutes of Kentucky, governing the trial of contested elections for governor, afford "due process of law," within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States.

The different points made by Taylor are answered and decisions of courts in Pennsylvania and other states are quoted in upholding the position assumed by the Goebel Democrats.

GOV. TAYLOR IN KENTUCKY.

Not Believed He Will Be Arrested For Several Days.

FRANKFORT, KY., April 30.—The presence of Governor Taylor in this city was known to the local officers and to those in charge of the prosecution, and the fact that a warrant of arrest was not served upon him is construed to mean that the indictment in this case will be held up and no process issued on it for several days. The governor later went to Louisville.

The indictment was returned in open court the day after those against Finley, Powers, Culton and others were returned, but it was not entered on the record and is now understood to be in the possession of Judge Cantrill.

Warrants Served on Sunday Players.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 30.—The Wheeling and New Castle teams figured in the first Sunday game ever attempted in Wheeling. A squire served warrants and bond was given. Then the chief of police appeared with 20 men, but he was soon convinced the players could not be arrested twice on the same charge and the game proceeded.

James McKean Dead.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—James Stitt McKean, president of the Union Trust company, and former postmaster of Pittsburg, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, 505 South Highland avenue, after a week's illness.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., April 30.—William Holyard, who lived about seven miles from this place, shot and killed his wife and then killed himself. She refused to return and live with him.

Episcopal Conference to Aid Labor.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A two-day's conference of the church association for the advancement of the interests of labor began here, the sessions being devoted to religious services in a number of the Episcopal churches.

Damage Done by Forest Fires.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 30.—Great damage has resulted from forest fires in Pike county, Pa. The fire is believed to have started from matches dropped among the leaves by fishermen.

Bishop Henry C. Potter said that the evident interest displayed at the meeting should focus itself. It should become operative and active.

Rev. Dr. Johnson, a missionary of Central India, said he had passed through three Indian famines. He told some pitiful and pathetic stories of the sacrifices of women—especially of women for their children.

The daughter of Rami Bey was introduced by Chairman Low. Her story was about 250 girls saved in the famine of 1897 by her mother. Others also talked.

Chairman Low announced that 20 students from the Union theological seminary would take up a collection, and added:

"The Chinese merchants of British Columbia united a few days ago to send a collection for the sufferers in the burned city of Ottawa. If the Chinese have learned the lesson of brotherhood, how much more should we exemplify it."

A list of names of prominent men was read as composing a committee to collect money for the famine sufferers. The contributions tonight amounted to $1,667. Miss Helen M. Gould, who occupied one of the boxes, pledged $200.

FORECAST OF THE SENATE.

Clerk Election Case Expected to Come Up On Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—So far as can now be foreseen, the week will be given up largely to the Alaska code bill and to appropriation bills in the senate. Senator Hawley, chairman of the committee on military affairs, has given notice that he will call up the army appropriation bill on Monday, and when this bill is disposed of, it is probable that the fortifications bill will be taken up. There will be an effort to secure final disposition of the Alaskan bill, but as there is almost as much opposition to the Carter amendment as there was to the amendment suggested by Senator Hansbrough, it is impossible to say whether the effort will succeed.

Senator Chandler, on Wednesday, will ask consideration of the resolution in the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, but there will be a request for more time to read the testimony and the case probably will go over for at least for several days more.

On Thursday the senate will listen to eulogies on the late Representative Baird, of Louisiana.

PRO-BOER MEETING REFERRED.

Absence of a Quorum Prevents Action In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—In the midst of the consideration of bills of minor importance in the senate, Mr. Pettigrew called up the following and asked for its immediate consideration: "Whereas, from the hour of achieving their own independence, the people of the United States have regarded with sympathy the struggles of other people to free themselves from European domination, therefore,

"Resolved, That we watch with deep and abiding interest the heroic battle of the South African republic against cruelty and oppression, and our best hopes go out for the full success of their determined contest for liberty."

Mr. Lodge moved that it be referred to the committee on foreign relations. Without a word of debate the vote was taken, 81 senators voting in favor of the reference and 11 against it. As the vote disclosed the absence of a quorum, an effort was made to secure one, but it was unsuccessful, and the senate adjourned. Party lines were not drawn in the vote to refer.

SOME STILL OPPOSE THE BILL.

Opposition to Change In the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The feature of the week in the house will be the Nicaraguan canal bill, which will be considered tomorrow and Wednesday. The elimination of the section relative to the fortification of the canal removes the objections entertained to it by the friends of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but because of that very fact the resentment of some of the Democrats has been aroused.

The bill, however, doubtless will command a very large majority when it comes to a vote. Thursday will be given up to the consideration of the "free homes" bill, and Friday to war claims.

RAILROADERS THREATEN A TIE-UP.

Arthur Says Engineers on New York Central Won't Strike.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30.—The striking employees of the New York Central have given the company until 1 o'clock this afternoon to grant their demands. If the concessions are not made by that time it is the intention of the strike leaders to extend the strike, and they predict it will be the largest in the history of railroads in the east.

CLEVELAND, April 30.—Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said that the engineers on the New York Central would not be affected by the threatened tie-up of that railroad. "The engineers have no grievance," he said, "and they cannot strike except in obedience to the laws of the organization. There will, in my opinion be no trouble."

The Rebel Paterno Captured.

MANILA, April 30.—Major General Lloyd Wheaton reports that Senor Paterno, the former president of the Filipino so-called cabinet, was captured in the mountains, near Trinidad, province of Benguet, April 25. Paterno recently, through relatives in Manila, requested and received permission to enter the American lines, but failed to appear. His relatives explained that he had been sick a long time and was an invalid. He was brought to San Fernando on a little ambulance by soldiers of the Forty-eighth regiment.

May Start For Cape Nome Today.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 30.—The formal rush to the gold fields of Cape Nome will be inaugurated today, when the steamer Jeanie, of the Pacific Steam Whaling company, the first steamer to start on the trip this year, is scheduled to sail, providing she arrives in time meantime from San Francisco.

REDUCED SCHOOL FUND.

Computations Prepared For Distribution In Pennsylvania—Estimated Amounts For Some Counties.

HARRISBURG, April 30.—The department of public instruction has finished making the computations for the distribution of the school fund for next year among the school districts.

A statement prepared at the school department and verified shows how much each county received last year and the reduced amount it will receive this year. That for this year is based on the biennial returns of the number of teachers and of children between 6 and 16 years of age in January, 1900. It is in part as follows:

Allegheny	524,431	528,440
Armstrong	55,275	50,445
Beaver	54,353	50,057
Bedford	47,672	42,345
Blair	76,415	71,189
Bradford	69,008	71,189
Butler	59,116	54,084
Cambria	32,565	79,512
Clearfield	31,495	75,073
Fayette	35,419	79,540
Greene	33,320	30,365
Huntingdon	41,114	38,338
Indiana	47,323	44,136
Lawrence	46,500	45,655
Mercer	62,164	55,880
Somerset	47,453	45,483
Warren	33,342	39,316
Washington	86,106	81,748
Westmoreland	130,431	124,340

In the above figures the cents are omitted.

AN ANSWER TO TAYLOR.

Beckham's Attorney Quotes Pennsylvania and Other Decisions In Support of Goebel Democrats' Attitude.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Lewis McQuown, attorney for J. C. W. Beckham, has prepared and will file his brief today in the supreme court in the case involving the title to the governorship of Kentucky. On the motion to dismiss, for want of jurisdiction in the supreme court, it is contended that the provisions of the constitution and statutes of Kentucky, governing the trial of contested elections for governor, afford "due process of law," within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States.

The different points made by Taylor are answered and decisions of courts in Pennsylvania and other states are quoted in upholding the position assumed by the Goebel Democrats.

GOV. TAYLOR IN KENTUCKY.

Not Believed He Will Be Arrested For Several Days.

FRANKFORT, KY., April 30.—The presence of Governor Taylor in this city was known to the local officers and to those in charge of the prosecution, and the fact that a warrant of arrest was not served upon him is construed to mean that the indictment in this case will be held up and no process issued on it for several days. The governor later went to Louisville.

The indictment was returned in open court the day after those against Finley, Powers, Clanton and others were returned, but it was not entered on the record and is now understood to be in the possession of Judge Cantrill.

Warrants Served on Sunday Players.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 30.—The Wheeling and New Castle teams figured in the first Sunday game ever attempted in Wheeling. A squire served warrants and bond was given. Then the chief of police appeared with 20 men, but he was soon convinced the players could not be arrested twice on the same charge and the game proceeded.

James McKean Dead.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—James Stitt McKean, president of the Union Trust company, and former postmaster of Pittsburg, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, 505 South Highland avenue, after a week's illness.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., April 30.—William H. Halyard, who lived about seven miles from this place, shot and killed his wife and then killed himself. She refused to return and live with him.

Episcopal Conference to Aid Labor.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A two-day's conference of the church association for the advancement of the interests of labor began here, the sessions being devoted to religious services in a number of the Episcopal churches.

Damage Done by Forest Fires.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 30.—Great damage has resulted from forest fires in Pike county, Pa. The fire is believed to have started from matches dropped among the leaves by fishermen.

ORDINANCE NO. 631.

An Ordinance Defining and Regulating Pawnbrokers.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to carry on the business of pawnbroker, or loaning money on jewelry or other personal property, in the city of East Liverpool, without first taking out a license from the mayor, and the mayor is hereby authorized to grant to any person of good moral character, who may apply therefor, a pawnbroker's license, which shall be issued under the corporate seal and signed by the mayor, and remain in force one (1) year from the date thereof, upon the payment therefor to the mayor by said applicant, the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars.

Section 2. Whoever loans money on deposits or pledges personal property, or who pledges personal property, or chooses in action, on condition of selling the same back again at a stipulated price, is hereby defined and declared to be a pawnbroker.

Section 3. Any person so licensed shall keep a correct list and description, in a book for that purpose, of every article pledged or deposited with him or on which advances of money have been made or which may be purchased by him, which list and description shall at all times be open to the inspection of the mayor and marshal, or any of the police officers of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio; and the persons so licensed shall at all times, when required by the mayor or marshal or police officers aforesaid, produce and show any article so listed or described, which may be in his possession. He shall also register in such book the name and place of residence of the depositor and the time when deposit was made. All the entries shall be written in ink in the English language and no entry shall be erased, obliterated or defaced.

Section 4. Every person so licensed shall prepare and deliver to the mayor every day before the hour of 12 o'clock, m., a legible and correct copy from such register, of the description of all personal property, bonds, notes or other securities received or deposited or purchased during the preceding day, together with the hour at which the article was received, together with a description of the person by whom left in pledge, or from whom the article was purchased.

Section 5. No person licensed as aforesaid shall take or receive any bond or pledge for money loaned, or shall take or receive or purchase within the line of his business as a pawnbroker, any property, bonds, notes, securities, articles or thing whatsoever, from any minor or person appearing to be intoxicated, a person known to be a notorious thief, or a person known to have been convicted of larceny or burglary.

Section 6. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars or more than fifty ($50.00) dollars, and shall, at the discretion of the mayor, have his license revoked.

Section 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Deeded to the Lord.

The most remarkable deed ever drawn may be seen on the private estate of a resident of Worcester in Massachusetts. It is chiseled on a rock on what is known as Rattlesnake hill, situated near the boundary line between Worcester and Leicester.

Old Solomon Parsons, who was widely known in Worcester county as an eccentric character, and particularly as a crank on the subject of religion, paid William C. Hall $125 for a parcel of land, and directed Hall to convey it by deed to the Almighty. In order that the greatest possible publicity might be given to his disposition of the property Parsons had the deed of transfer cut into the rock verbatim et literatim.

During his lifetime Parsons is said to have made several attempts to have the deed recorded, but the register of deeds, who was aware of his eccentricity, each time put him off with the explanation that no official record was required in the case of a transfer of real estate to the Almighty.

Parsons died intestate several years ago, and the administrator included the parcel of land on Rattlesnake hill in the inventory of the old gentleman's estate which he filed in the probate court. A wag of a lawyer raised the question of title, but the judge decided in the favor of the administrator.—New York Journal.

Our First Woman Editor.

According to the Hartford Courant, that paper in 1777 was owned and edited and managed by a woman, whose name comes down to modern days as "the Widow Watson." She had "exclusive charge" of the journal. After a couple of years Mrs. Watson married a leading citizen of Hartford, and after that date she no doubt let him advise and assist in the conduct of the paper. But she holds the record for the first woman editor in the country.

Clever Suggestion.

"How shall I prove the sincerity of my devotion?" asked the young man who had been so long coming to the point that doubt had begun to accumulate against him.

"Call the parson in as a witness," suggested the young lady.—Detroit Free Press.

DEWEY WELL RECEIVED.

Large Crowd Greeted Him as He Passed
Through Pittsburg—Not on a Political Tour.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—The special train of Admiral Dewey, over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, arrived here last night. The train did not go into the station, but was transferred at Laughlin Junction. A large crowd of people had assembled to see the admiral at the different stations, and he greeted them from the platform of the car. The trip from Washington to Pittsburg was uneventful. At Connellsville about one-half of the population of the town was present to greet the admiral. He declined to discuss politics with those who called upon him, saying the trip had no political significance whatever.

NOT A POLITICAL TRIP.

Dewey Refused to Talk Politics Before
He Started.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Admiral Dewey was seen at his home before leaving the city for Chicago, and was asked if he had any statement to make regarding the presidency.

"No," said he, "I think it would be in bad taste for me to say anything of a political nature just at this time. As the admiral of the navy I accepted the invitations to visit Chicago, Jacksonville, St. Louis, Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, which cities asked me to be their guest, and I do not wish anything political to enter into the trip."

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The porte has not yet replied to the note handed to Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister, by the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. Lloyd Griscom, regarding the indemnity claim, and the situation is unchanged.

In some quarters it is believed that a settlement will yet be made by means of some arrangement with private American contractors, concealing the actual payment, and thus relieving the Ottoman government from admitting responsibility for the losses occasioned at the time of the massacres.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Sixteen delegates to the seventh general convention of the constitution grand lodge of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, which held its first session at the Auditorium, were denied the right to vote in the deliberations of that body, though the privilege of the floor was given to them.

To Guard Against American Poachers.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 30.—The fishermen of the west coast of Vancouver island are petitioning the Dominion government again for the establishment of a patrol to protect British Columbia halibut banks from American poaching schooners.

The household effects of James Byland were shipped from this place to East Palestine this morning.

A large force of workmen this morning began cleaning the freight yards about the Horn switch.

A valuable New Foundland dog owned by John Marple, of Second street, was poisoned Saturday evening.

Rev. W. H. Gladden left for Uniontown this morning, where he will remain several weeks for the benefit of his health.

The Gardendale dog scare has abated somewhat and Mayor Davidson didn't have a complaint filed with him yesterday or today.

Superintendent R. E. Rayman and wife returned home this morning from Columbus, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Rayman's mother.

The late Cleveland express was an hour late in arriving at the Second street station Saturday evening, caused by a freight wreck near Hudson.

Additional switches are being constructed in the freight yards near the old glass factory. The switches lead from the main tracks to the new storage tracks.

The official board of the Christian church will meet at the church tomorrow evening. At this meeting it will be decided what size of a parsonage will be erected and also the cost.

James Mackall, a kilnman at the Murphy pottery, had his left hand badly injured Saturday afternoon while playing ball at Rock Spring park by having it struck with a ball bat.

The mail box that will be placed at the passenger station arrived in the city Saturday evening. The mail clerks claim that two boxes should be used in this place, one for eastern and the other for western mail.

The board of education will meet in regular session in the directors' room at the Central school building this evening. There is not much business to be transacted and the meeting will be of short duration.

DEWEY WELL RECEIVED.

Large Crowd Greeted Him as He Passed
Through Pittsburg—Not on a
Political Tour.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—The special train of Admiral Dewey, over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, arrived here last night. The train did not go into the station, but was transferred at Laughlin Junction. A large crowd of people had assembled to see the admiral at the different stations, and he greeted them from the platform of the car. The trip from Washington to Pittsburg was uneventful. At Connellsville about one-half of the population of the town was present to greet the admiral. He declined to discuss politics with those who called upon him, saying the trip had no political significance whatever.

NOT A POLITICAL TRIP.

Dewey Refused to Talk Politics Before
He Started.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Admiral Dewey was seen at his home before leaving the city for Chicago, and was asked if he had any statement to make regarding the presidency.

"No," said he. "I think it would be in bad taste for me to say anything of a political nature just at this time. As the admiral of the navy I accepted the invitations to visit Chicago, Jacksonville, St. Louis, Memphis, Nashville and Knoxville, which cities asked me to be their guest, and I do not wish anything political to enter into the trip."

PORTE MAY SETTLE BY A TRICK.

With Some Contractor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The porte has not yet replied to the note handed to Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister, by the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. Lloyd Griscom, regarding the indemnity claim, and the situation is unchanged.

In some quarters it is believed that a settlement will yet be made by means of some arrangement with private American contractors, concealing the actual payment, and thus relieving the Ottoman government from admitting responsibility for the losses occasioned at the time of the massacres.

Sixteen Delegates Can't Vote.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Sixteen delegates to the seventh general convention of the constitution grand lodge of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, which held its first session at the Auditorium, were denied the right to vote in the deliberations of that body, though the privilege of the floor was given to them.

Tanner to Undergo an Operation.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The skiagraph of Governor Tanner's anatomy, taken Saturday, was developed and showed clearly the presence of gall stones in the biliary ducts. The governor will return to Springfield today, where an operation will be performed by Dr. Senn.

To Guard Against American Poachers.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 30.—The fishermen of the west coast of Vancouver island are petitioning the Dominion government again for the establishment of a patrol to protect British Columbia halibut banks from American poaching schooners.

Death of a Missionary.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—A telegram was received here announcing the death in Shanghai of Miss Laura Haygood, a missionary of the Methodist church. She was a sister of the late Bishop Haygood, and founded the McTyre home for women in China.

Putting It Mildly.

Judge—Here, officer, this man is stealing ice when I nabbed him.

Officer—It is, your honor, stealing ice when I nabbed him.

Decided to the Lord.

The most remarkable deed ever drawn may be seen on the private estate of a resident of Worcester in Massachusetts. It is chiseled on a rock on what is known as Rattlesnake hill, situated near the boundary line between Worcester and Leicester.

Old Solomon Parsons, who was widely known in Worcester county as an eccentric character, and particularly as a crank on the subject of religion, paid William C. Hall $125 for a parcel of land, and directed Hall to convey it by deed to the Almighty. In order that the greatest possible publicity might be given to his disposition of the property Parsons had the deed of transfer cut into the rock verbatim et literatim.

During his lifetime Parsons is said to have made several attempts to have the deed recorded, but the register of deeds, who was aware of his eccentricity, each time put him off with the explanation that no official record was required in the case of a transfer of real estate to the Almighty.

Parsons died intestate several years ago, and the administrator included the parcel of land on Rattlesnake hill in the inventory of the old gentleman's estate which he filed in the probate court. A wag of a lawyer raised the question of title, but the judge decided in the favor of the administrator.—New York Journal.

Our First Woman Editor.

According to the Hartford Courant, that paper in 1777 was owned and edited and managed by a woman, whose name comes down to modern days as "the Widow Watson." She had "exclusive charge" of the journal. After a couple of years Mrs. Watson married a leading citizen of Hartford, and after that date she no doubt let him advise and assist in the conduct of the paper. But she holds the record for the first woman editor in the country.

Clever Suggestion.

"How shall I prove the sincerity of my devotion?" asked the young man who had been so long coming to the point that doubt had begun to accumulate against him.

"Call the parson in as a witness," suggested the young lady.—Detroit Free Press.

ORDINANCE NO. 631.

An Ordinance Defining and Regulating Pawnbrokers.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED BY the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to carry on the business of pawnbroker, or loaning money on jewelry or other personal property, in the city of East Liverpool, without first taking out a license from the mayor, and the mayor is hereby authorized to grant to any person of good moral character, who may apply therefor, a pawnbroker's license, which shall be issued under the corporate seal and signed by the mayor, and remain in force one (1) year from the date thereof, upon the payment therefor to the mayor by said applicant, the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars.

Section 2. Whoever loans money on deposits or pledges of personal property, or who pledges personal property, or chooses in action, on condition of selling the same back again at a stipulated price, is hereby defined and declared to be a pawnbroker.

Section 3. Any person so licensed shall keep a correct list and description, in a book for that purpose, of every article pledged or deposited with him or on which advances of money have been made, or which may be purchased by him, which list and description shall at all times be open to the inspection of the mayor and marshal, or any of the police officers of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio; and the person so licensed shall at all times, when required by the mayor or marshal or police officers aforesaid, produce and show any article so listed or described, which may be in his possession. He shall also register in such book the name and place of residence of the depositor and the time when deposit was made. All the entries shall be written in ink in the English language and no entry shall be erased, obliterated or defaced.

Section 4. Every person so licensed shall prepare and deliver to the mayor every day before the hour of 12 o'clock, m., a legible and correct copy from such register, of the description of all personal property, bonds, notes or other securities received or deposited or purchased during the preceding day, together with the hour at which the article was received, together with a description of the person by whom left in pledge, or from whom the article was purchased.

Section 5. No person licensed as aforesaid shall take or receive any bond or pledge for money loaned, or shall take or receive or purchase within the line of his business as a pawnbroker, any property, bonds, notes, securities, articles or thing whatsoever, from any minor or person appearing to be intoxicated, a person known to be a notorious thief, or a person known to have been convicted of larceny or burglary.

Section 6. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars or more than fifty ($50.00) dollars, and shall, at the discretion of the mayor, have his license revoked.

Section 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
